Service Engagement Internship
Overview for Interns | 2023-24

REPAIR THE WORLD | Hillel International
Service Engagement Internship

The Service Engagement Internship (SEI) - Powered by Repair the World and Hillel International (formerly known as the Repair Campus Corps Program) supports student interns at Hillels around the world to engage their peers in volunteering, civic engagement, and social change work.

Participating Interns receive:

- $500 stipend per intern (North America)
- Virtual Education and training:
    - Leading effective volunteer programs
    - An issue area of your choice (eg: climate and environmentalism, food justice, education justice, etc...)
- Access to $500 program dollars per intern through your local Hillel
- A community of peers around the world

Requirements:

Each intern must:

- Volunteer 10 times.
- Engage at least 25 additional students, each of whom will volunteer at least once.
- Attend an orientation session (options in September or October) and mid-year training (January).
- Participate in a local or national cohort learning experience depending on the number of interns on your campus and your supervisor's plan.
- Regularly check in with your supervisor.
