BRIEF INTRODUCTION FOR NEWCOMERS

Raza Online Quran Teaching Academy (Pak) is an upcoming online educational platform that is being established with the mission to serve the Muslim community in Pakistan and abroad through quality Islamic and academic online teaching services. Our aim is to promote education, Quran learning, and professional online teaching opportunities in a modern and effective way, Insha Allah.

The official launching date of the academy is 1st July 2026, Insha Allah, because our website is under the technical progress. At the initial stage, we are inviting applications from dedicated and motivated individuals for the following positions across Pakistan:

- Quran Teachers [All Provinces]
- Marketing & Sales Representatives [All Provinces]
- District Academic Coordinators [All Provinces]

Experienced candidates will be preferred, however, fresh candidates are also warmly welcome to apply. Detailed job descriptions for these positions are already widely available on the internet for general understanding and professional guidance.

All employees will work remotely from their homes. Applicants must have:

- A laptop or computer [zoom/Whatsapp/skype]
- A smartphone/mobile device [zoom/Whatsapp/skype]
- Stable internet access
- Necessary software installed in their systems for online work and communication

We have already started collecting CVs from interested candidates. After careful analysis of applications, shortlisted candidates will be invited for online interviews. Successful candidates will receive official confirmation letters from the organization. Salary packages for both fresh and experienced employees will be clearly mentioned according to the respective post and experience level.

At present, technical work for website development and maintenance is under progress. Insha Allah, within the month, our complete website will be launched on the internet. All submitted CVs will remain محفوظ (securely saved) in our database and will not be lost, as interviews will be conducted step by step over time.

We strongly believe that our employees will become the backbone and strength of this organization in the future, helping us serve the Ummah in the best possible manner, Insha Allah.
