Guide to INFOBASE Database with Tips & Tricks!

Click on the image below to connect to the database:

Today's Science | Modern World History | Issues & Controversies | Bloom's Literature | Fine Art

---

Each of these INFOBASE databases is slightly different. You should see that you have access to the database with the following messages:

The databases come with rich additional resources - be sure to check them out, click on the links, and go exploring!

For example, use the browse feature to explore your search options:

Heather Abraham

BLOOMS LITERATURE:

Heather Abraham

OR* you can do a quick search:

Be sure to check out the side columns and their features to help refine your search:

Heather Abraham

OR* you can do an advanced search:

Select your article:

Related Articles displayed on the right side of your screen:

Heather Abraham

And many great resources for you to use:

- Save to your Google Drive, a folder on your computer, print, or download! If the highlighting feature is turned on, then the article will highlight your search terms within the article.

- Email the file to yourself, a teacher, or a classmate. You can also copy the link and place it in an email.

- Click the button and you can export your citation to your NoodeTools account.

- Keep the Glossary Links feature turned on to see the definitions of the highlighted words.

- Too tired to read? Not a problem - have the article read to you:

Questions? Email Mrs. Heather Abraham!

Heather Abraham