SEEKING LOS ANGELES AREA NEIGHBORS FOR TV!

Are you in a long standing dispute with your neighbor that's driving you nuts - affecting you, your family, even the whole block? You've tried everything from friendly calls to leaving notes to knocking on their door to talk -- and nothing's worked. Your "friendly" neighbor sees the situation from a completely different point of view and isn't budging. Patience is wearing thin, neighbors are taking sides and tempers are flaring. In fact, this "feud" might erupt soon if nothing changes.

Maybe your neighbor's filthy swimming pool is stinking up the neighborhood and bringing in mosquitos. Or perhaps the house across the street throws late night block parties that are keeping your kids awake and ruining your weekends. Or maybe your neighbor's unpainted, eyesore of a house with old cars on the front lawn is driving the property values down on your block.

We're looking for people in your situation for a video pitch presentation ("Presentation") for a potential new TV show dealing with neighbors in conflict. We want to hear both sides of the story. If you've been living with a situation that's been brewing for far too long, and are eager to be on camera and tell your story – this could be just the opportunity for you.

18 years old and older only who live in the Los Angeles area. Please do NOT include any personal or sensitive information in your email (e.g., date of birth, social security number, street address, financial information, etc.). Please note that the Presentation will be solely for entertainment purposes.

Filming is expected to take place at the end of May 2018.
