Dear Friends,

I wanted to send you a few ideas for promoting the ministry event. Isn't amazing how we can get excited about sharing and promoting plays, dramas, basketball, football and other sporting events? As you know, we have something way more exciting to share and we have a reason to do it. His love! His desire to share it with all… "…for God so loved the world…" My prayer is that God would brand you with His love as you share about this upcoming ministry event. My prayer is that love with motivate you, not service.

Here are a few suggestions or places you can promote:

Radio (PSA and Radio play for Broken Walls)
Newspapers
PSA (Radio/TV)
Television
Churches (via Fax or posters)(Pre-service announcements)
Youth Groups
Businesses
Theater/Drama Groups
Dance Groups
Native Organizations, Groups and Corporations
Email groups
Clinicians and Wellness programs.
Website referrals (www.brokenwalls.com)

 Pick a few people that can do the promoting and follow through with it. Remind them it is for the Kingdom of God. We are believing God for a harvest of souls! Every promotion is a seed planted.

Even though Broken Walls is an Internationally know worship group people aren't going to come if they don't know about it. The event is free…but we will be taking up an offering.

May God guide you and strengthen you and give you creative ways of getting the word out.

I'm only able to send a few CD's but feel free to copy them if you need to for promotional purposes.

In His unfailing love,

Bill Pagaran
