CCF IEEE

WISC

Women in Services Computing Symposium

2024 PhD Forum Application

Timeline

May 15, 2024: Submission Deadline
May 30, 2024: Acceptance Notification
July 7, 2024: Presentations

Eligibility

Students must be conducting research in systems and networking research pertaining to cloud, edge and Internet-of Things (IoT), as well as technologies for intelligent computing, learning, Big Data and blockchain applications and be in good standing or up to 6 months after graduating with their doctoral degree.

Application Items

Name and contact information of applicant (email, home address, cell phone)
Short Bio (maximum 200 words)
Personal Statement (500 word maximum)
Official Transcript
Supervisor Recommendation Letter:

- Ensure your name and email address are included in the recommendation letter
- Limit 1 page
- The recommendation letter must be sent by the supervisor. The file name should be {PhD_student_lastname}_recommendation.pdf

A two-page extended abstract that summarizes

- The main research areas or difficulties the applicant is focusing on, such as a potential thesis subject.
- The notable contributions made towards their research focus.
- The directions for the remaining work.

A list of contributions, talks, and technical blog articles (if any)

Please create one pdf file for all the above materials and submit to:
wiscphdforum@gmail.com

The object of the email should be: PhD Forum Registration

Consent and Release Form: submit as a separate document with your application. Applications to the PhD forum will also be considered to WISC Scholarship award.

Name of Applicant:

Contact Information: (email address, home address, cell phone number)
Email:
Home Address:
Cell Phone Number (include country code):

Short Bio

Short Bio

Personal Statement (not to exceed 500 words)

Personal statement should reflect your technical interests, your career goals, contributions to your community, etc.

Personal Statement

Extended Abstract (not to exceed 2 pages)

The extended abstract describes your research interests, contributions and future directions.

Extended Abstract

List of contributions

The list of contributions may include research papers (accepted or submitted) to potential conferences, technical blog articles, and previous talks. Please include any relevant links.

List of contributions