*E-mail: corresponding_author@fmipa.unp.ac.id (e.g. : author2 as corresponding author)
The presenting author's name must be underlined. The corresponding author should be indicated by an asterisk ().*

The abstract should be written in English using Times New Roman font (11) and should clearly describe the purpose, methodology, principal findings, and significance of the work. It should be written as one continuous paragraph without section headings such as Introduction, Methods, Results, or Conclusion. The abstract should be concise, informative, and suitable for publication in the conference abstract book.

The abstract should not exceed one A4 page, including figures and references. References to figures, tables, and literature should be kept to a minimum. Abbreviations should be defined when first introduced. Mathematical equations and footnotes should be avoided whenever possible.

Authors may include one figure, scheme, or graphical illustration immediately after the abstract if it significantly enhances the presentation of the work. The figure should be accompanied by a caption placed below the figure.
