No.: 16.8 Oz.

The Seaweed Bath Company specifically developed this line of Powder Baths to alleviate the conditions of red, dry, flaking, and scaling skin. Made with sustainably harvested bladderwrack seaweed from the North Atlantic Ocean, an ingredient that alkalizes the skin's pH and reduces redness, these powder baths are a fragrant, natural, and relaxing solution to your skin's woes.

Adam Grossman, the founder of The Seaweed Bath Company, discovered that the use of bladderwrack seaweed led to noticeable improvements in the symptoms of his psoriasis. Amazed by its efficacy and thrilled to have a natural alternative to prescribed medications and harsh chemicals, he was driven to develop a line of skin care products utilizing seaweed and intended specifically for sufferers of skin problems.

Bladderwrack seaweed is a brown seaweed rich in essential and non-essential amino acids that help to moisturize dry, damaged skin. It also contains fucoidan, a natural anti-inflammatory, as well as potassium and iodine, which help detoxify the body.

Founded in 2010 and based in Austin, Texas, The Seaweed Bath Company uses sustainably hand-harvested bladderwrack seaweed from the coasts of Maine and Nova Scotia combined with high quality natural ingredients, many of which have been utilized by Asian, African, and European cultures for centuries to improve the skin's well-being. All products are free of parabens, sulfates, dyes...
