What time are exams?

Exams are scheduled from 8:30-11:30 and 12:30-3:30. Students should arrive 15 minutes early so they have the full three hours to write. Students must remain in the room for the first hour. Any students who arrive after 9:30 or 1:30 will not be permitted to write.

How will I know if an exam is rescheduled?

Exams will proceed as planned unless you receive communication directly from the school.

Will the bus run during exams?

Yes, K-8 students have regularly scheduled programming during exams. Buses will follow regular arrival and departure times. If you normally take the bus but will leave after your exam, you need to sign out and communicate that to attendance and your bus driver.

What do I need to bring to my exam?

Students should bring a writing utensil, calculator (if needed), and a water bottle. A phone cannot be used in place of a calculator.

Will the meal plan be offered during exams?

Yes.

What do students wear during exams?

Students are expected to be in uniform for exams. They are welcome to wear their Friday uniform.

When can students leave?

Students are welcome to go home when they have completed their exam.

Are non-residence students allowed in dorm rooms while they wait for their ride or bus?

Non-residence students are never allowed in dorm rooms. Students are welcome to wait in flex spaces while they are waiting for the bus or a ride.

Will the gym be open during exams?

Students are welcome to workout between 8:00 and 12:00 or 2:30 and 4:00. If they have no exam scheduled on a day, they are welcome at the school to exercise at these times.

What do students do between before or after their exam?

If they are able to, students are welcome to go home after their exam. If they plan on staying on campus, there are spaces available to complete final tasks and study for exams.

What if a student is sick and unable to attend an exam?

Students are expected to write their exams on their scheduled date. If they are unable to attend due to illness, a doctor's note will need to be submitted to the vice principal in order to reschedule it.
