Session 4b

National Anthem

(P.O.8, E.O.1)

"The Star-Spangled Banner" was adopted by Congress as our country's National Anthem on March 3, 1931, but it was actually written by Francis Scott Key in September of 1814 during the war of 1812.

Oh, say can you _____,

By the dawn's early _____,

What so proudly we _____,

At the twilight's last _____?

Whose broad _____ and bright _____,

Through the perilous _____,

O'er the ramparts we watched,

Were so gallantly streaming.

And the rocket's _____ glare,

The bombs bursting in _____,

Gave proof through the night,

That our flag was still _____.

Oh say does that star spangled banner yet wave,

For the land of the _____, and the home of the _____.

Fill in the blanks above with the following words:

Air	Brave	Fight	Free
Gleaming	Hailed	Light	Red
See	Stars	Stripes	There
