

At this point in the story, how many years have passed?

Had there been any success?

With a new charter drawn up and signed by the King, what were the settlers to receive?

In August some of the fleet arrived, with 400 people, their supplies dwindled. This did not help the settlement, instead what happened?

What terrible thing did some resort to?

How many survived the starving time?

Why didn't the governors ship, the Sea Venture, arrive?

Two small ships finally arrived carrying 150 passengers and included 2 knights. How did they describe what they found at Jamestown. What did they decide to do?

At the last minute who arrive and with what?

At this point in the story, how many years have passed?

Had there been any success?

With a new charter drawn up and signed by the King, what were the settlers to receive?

In August some of the fleet arrived, with 500, their supplies dwindled. This did not help the settlement, instead what happened?

What terrible thing did some resort to?

How many survived the starving time?

Why didn't the governors ship, the Sea Venture, arrive?

Two small ships finally did arrive carrying 150 to include two knights. How did they describe what they found at Jamestown? What did they decide to do?

At the last minute who arrive and with what?