Homework: Review of Rules for Grammar and Punctuation Part I

Directions: Use this graphic organizer to review the rules of grammar and punctuation you learned today.

Part I: Grammar Rules!

Directions: Look at each model. Write the rule of grammar for each. Then create your own sentence to show you understand the rule.

MODEL

At KIPP LA Prep, students are taught a set of core values that include love, honor, to have integrity, and to show excellence.

What is the rule of grammar?

Your example:

MODEL

When students are in class, they know they should work hard, and is nice.

What is the rule of grammar?

Your example:

MODEL

Mr. Herrera expects all of their students to be readers today, and leader tomorrow.

What is the rule of grammar?

Your example:

Part II: Punctuation

Directions: Look at each model. Write the rule of punctuation for each. Then create your own sentence to show you understand the rule.

MODEL

Mrs. Martinez the former principal of KIPP LA Prep still has a lot of love for their KIPPsters.

What is the rule of punctuation?

Your example:

MODEL

Mrs. Smith the 7th grade english teacher yelled excuse me. can you please quiet down?

What is the rule of punctuation?

Your example:

SUMMARIZE

Explain at least three rules of grammar and/or punctuation that you learned or practiced today. Explain why these rules are important in your life.

