The following list was put together by numerous people of color in Satanic spaces. They are both for information and some are for entertainment, but still educational. Enjoy!

Do the Work by W Kamau Bell & Kate Schatz
The 1619 Project by Nikole Hannah-Jones & The New York Times Magazine
The Color of Law by Richard Rothstien
Eloquent Rage: A Black Feminist Discovers Her Superpower by Brittney Cooper
Crying in H-Mart by Michelle Zauner
Minor Feelings by Cathy Park Hong
Little Fires Everywhere by Celeste Ng
The Groom Will Keep His Name by Matt Ortile
The Last White Man by Moshin Hamid
I Was Their American Dream by Malaka Gharib
The Making of Asian America by Erika Lee
Me and White Supremacy by Layla Saad
Why I'm No Longer Talking to White People about Race by Reni Eddo-Lodge
Between the World and Me by Ta-Nehisi Coates
Interior Chinatown by Charles Yu
The Autobiography of Malcolm X (As told to Alex Haley) by Malcolm X
Invisible Man by Ralph Ellison
The Original Black Elite by Elizabeth Dowling Taylor
The New Jim Crow by Michelle Alexander
Moral Combat: Black Atheists, Gender Politics, and the Values Wars by Sikivu Hutchinson
This Bridge Called My Back: Writings by Radical Women of Color edited by Cherríe Moraga and Gloria Anzaldúa
I'm Still Here by Austin Channing Brown
Sister Outsider by Audra Lourde
Dangerous Crossings: Race, Species, and Nature in a Multicultural Age by Claire Kim 21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act: Helping Canadians Make Reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples a Reality by Bob Joseph
The Inconvenient Indian: A Curious Account of Native People in North America by Thomas King

We have hosted various panels discussing items such as intergenerational trauma, immigration nuances, and proper allyship. Our members have also hosted panels through the Satanic Ministry and SatanCon. Our inaugural SoCC BIPOC conference took place virtually in the winter of 2022 with the goal to host it annually through The Satanic Estate and TSTTV. It is available to watch through TSTTV. We have also collaborated with other TST campaigns such as Sober Faction, which provides peer support recovery for addiction free from the pseudoscience and superstitious dogma entrenched in most mainstream programs. Within Sober Faction is a BIPOC alliance known as the BIPOC Bloc; it runs separately from SOCC and it shares many influential members between the two alliances. This cooperation exemplifies the intersectionality that we have discussed multiple times in our myriad SOCC panels.

Allies within the Sober Faction community have used academic materials such as Do the Work! An Antiracist Activity Book and White Supremacy Culture to host forums discussing proper allyship within an intersectional environment. Sober Faction has truly been a paragon of allyship in the BIPOC struggle for autonomy and decolonization. We have released various research essays and statements on various BIPOC holidays such as Juneteenth and Latine/x Heritage Month. Our ministers have also created land acknowledgment rituals to acknowledge the struggles of native nations suffering under the colonization of Christian hegemony and to celebrate the continued evolution of their present history. Always remember, the native nations are a culture with a history and not a culture of history and therefore not to be fetishized as historical curiosities.

Efforts, Actions, & Collaborations

Recommended Reading List

Racism as Zoological Witchcraft: A Guide to Getting Out by Aph Ko

Sister Citizen by Melissa Harris-Perry
Pedagogy of the Oppressed by Franz Fanon
Women, Race and Class and Are Prisons Obsolete? by Angela Davis
Autobiography of Assata Shakur by Assata Shakur
So You Want To Talk About Race by Ijeoma Oluo
I Can't Save You by Anthony Chin-Quee
I Know Why the Caged Bird Sings by Maya Angelou
How the García Girls Lost Their Accents by Julia Alvarez
I Am Malala: The Story of the Girl Who Stood Up for Education and Was Shot by the Taliban by Malala Yousafzai
I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter by Erika L. Sánchez
The following works by Ibram X. Kendi:
How to be Anti Racist
Stamped From the Beginning
Antiracist Baby
The Antiracist Deck: This card deck is 100 conversation starters that can help facilitate discussions on the structures of racism, on antiracist resistance, on class, on power, and more with yourself, your family, your friends, your co-workers, or your community.
The following authors are also recommended:
Toni Morrison
Langston Hughes
Bell Hooks
Nikki Giovanni
Saidiya Hartman