I have provided source documents whenever possible, leaving out opinion pieces altogether, although there are some links that go to non-source sites, but that do provide direct links to source documents, and opinion is kept to a minimum. I'm doing this to save myself some time and energy as well as to save some space here. No "news" articles included, except in the cases where announcements of current events took place for proof that something took place.

This begins with some terms to know, since this is not given in the media or elsewhere, and they are important to know, so as to understand who the Gadiantons are and their plans.

Some terms to know:

1. What are the Georgia Guidestones?

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Georgia_Guidestones Here are the "New 10 Commandments," as they are often referred to.

A message consisting of a set of ten guidelines or principles is engraved on the Georgia Guidestones[8] in eight different languages, one language on each face of the four large upright stones. Moving clockwise around the structure from due north, these languages are: English, Spanish, Swahili, Hindi, Hebrew, Arabic, Traditional Chinese, and Russian.

1. Maintain humanity under 500,000,000 in perpetual balance with nature. (That is a reduction of population of about 95% of humanity)
2. Guide reproduction wisely—improving fitness and diversity. (Eugenics)
3. Unite humanity with a living new language.
4. Rule passion—faith—tradition—and all things with tempered reason. (Faith and tradition are outdated – whose reason?)
5. Protect people and nations with fair laws and just courts. (This goes back to world courts and their authority top down, as opposed to jurisdictional authority. There is a lot of additional information I can point you to, but other points are more relevant)
6. Let all nations rule internally resolving external disputes in a world court.
7. Avoid petty laws and useless officials. (Sheriffs and police officers have been mentioned, among others. Systems of voting and the selection of said officials has also been discussed. It isn't Federalist, exactly, as it is on a global level with sectors, as opposed to nations. – I can provide these resources, but other points are more relevant)
8. Balance personal rights with social duties.
9. Prize truth—beauty—love—seeking harmony with the infinite.
10. Be not a cancer on the Earth—Leave room for nature—Leave room for nature.
    Here are details of how it was built, some further information; with pictures in the wayback machine:

2. What are Agenda 21 & Agenda 2030?

AGENDA 21 is the worldwide plan for sustainable development implemented at the local level through the city council, county and state. It is to be accomplished in the 21st century, and much of it has been implemented as of 2015. More soft-ball than A2030. I won't go into it much here.

"The realities of life on our planet dictate that continued economic development as we know it cannot be sustained. . . Sustainable development, therefore, is a program of action for local and global economic reform – a program that has yet to be fully defined." The Local Agenda 21 Planning Guide, published by ICLEI, 1996.

"Individual rights will have to take a back seat to the collective." Harvey Ruvin, Vice Chairman, ICLEI. The Wildlands Project

"Participating in a UN advocated planning process would very likely bring out many of the conspiracy-fixated groups and individuals in our society. . . This segment of our society who fear One-World Government and a UN invasion of the United States through which our individual freedom would be stripped away would actively work to defeat any elected official who joined the "conspiracy" by undertaking Agenda 21. So we call our process something else, such as comprehensive planning, growth management or smart growth." J. Gary Lawrence, advisor to President Clinton's Council on Sustainable Development.

AGENDA 2030 is the worldwide plan for sustainable development implemented at the national and worldwide levels. It can be described as global socialism/communism for the year 2030.
Here are the 17 Sustainable Goals of Agenda 2030: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sustainable_Development_Goals
(Using Wikipedia so you can hover over the highlighted text to learn more about the who's and what's, if you so choose)
The goals all sound innocuous enough, but if you really look at what the plans behind each are, broken down into the steps and subsequent micro-steps to accomplish them, it is all socialist in nature.

The 17 SDGs are: (1) No Poverty, (2) Zero Hunger, (3) Good Health and Well-being, (4) Quality Education, (5) Gender Equality, (6) Clean Water and Sanitation, (7) Affordable and Clean Energy, (8) Decent Work and Economic Growth, (9) Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure, (10) Reducing Inequality, (11) Sustainable Cities and Communities, (12) Responsible Consumption and Production, (13) Climate Action, (14) Life Below Water, (15) Life On Land, (16) Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, (17) Partnerships for the Goals.

Some quotes about what the goals encompass:

"To achieve a better outcome, the world must act jointly and swiftly to revamp all aspects of our societies and economies, from education to social contracts and working conditions. Every country, from the United States to China, must participate, and every industry, from oil and gas to tech, must be transformed. In short, we need a "Great Reset" of capitalism." https://www.weforum.org/agenda/2020/06/now-is-the-time-for-a-great-reset/

Source: https://sdgs.un.org/2030agenda
"This Agenda is a plan of action for people, planet and prosperity," reads the preamble. "All countries and all stakeholders, acting in collaborative partnership, will implement this plan." "free the human race from the tyranny of poverty" "The new agenda is a promise by leaders to all people everywhere" "It is a universal, integrated and transformative vision for a better world." "We need action from everyone, everywhere," "They are a to-do list for people and planet, and a blueprint for success." "We must use the goals to transform the world," "Institutions will have to become fit for a grand new purpose." "This is an Agenda of unprecedented scope and significance," "Never before have world leaders pledged common action and endeavor across such a broad and universal policy agenda," "What we are announcing today — an Agenda for global action for the next fifteen years — is a charter for people and planet in the twenty-first century."

The Agenda – just some points
Goal 3: "Achieve universal health coverage," including "vaccines for all." Universal access to "mental health," along with "sexual and reproductive health-care services" — "national strategies and programmes,"

Goal 10: which calls on the UN, national governments, and every person on Earth to "reduce inequality within and among countries." To do that, the agreement continues, will "only be possible if wealth is shared and income inequality is addressed." "By 2030, ensure that all men and women, in particular the poor and the vulnerable, have equal rights to economic resources," "We commit to making fundamental changes in the way that our societies produce and consume goods and services," "governments, international organizations, the business sector and other non-state actors and individuals must contribute to changing unsustainable consumption and production patterns … to move towards more sustainable patterns of consumption and production."

"Children and young women and men are critical agents of change and will find in the new Goals a platform to channel their infinite capacities for activism into the creation of a better world"

"Every country, from the United States to China, must participate, and every industry, from oil and gas to tech, must be transformed," wrote Klaus Schwab, the founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum, in an article published on WEF's website. "In short, we need a 'Great Reset' of capitalism."

What is not sustainable?
Ski runs, grazing of livestock, plowing of soil, building fences, industry, single family homes, paved and tarred roads, logging activities, dams and reservoirs, power line construction, and economic systems that fail to set proper value on the environment." UN's Biodiversity Assessment Report.

3. The UN and the WEF (World Economic Forum) are working together, via many initiatives and programs to bring about Agenda 2030: The UN created A21 and A2030.

4. Several important WEF (World Economic Forum) articles:

"If the world is serious about sustainability, it must embark on a new era of global law"

https://www.weforum.org/agenda/2021/11/global-governance-sustainability/

Excerpt: "What is global law?

"Global law – as defined by the Global Law Forum – is a system of principles, norms and technological solutions aimed at the formation of global governance for sustainable development and the realization of global human rights (including digital rights) . Global law is not a parallel third system of law (to domestic and international legislation); it aims to take into account all current subjects of international law, based on international laws, as well as the domestic legal systems of all countries.

The principles of global law are based on the interdependence of our social planetary ecosystem and include:

- The realization of human rights
- Giving priority to solving global threats through the creation of global governance
- Unification of legal norms and the creation of digital mechanisms for their implementation (with the development of govtech, civtech and legaltech)
- Open, transparent, decentralized global law-making with a multistakeholder element

Making sustainability a global reality

The classic concept of sustainable development combines three different components: environmental, social and economic, all reflected in the United Nations' Sustainable Development Agenda 2030. UN Secretary-General António Guterres has stated that: "The global community is at a critical moment in its pursuit of the sustainable development goals (SDGs)."

"8 predictions for the world in 2030
Source - 8 predictions for the world in 2030 | World Economic Forum
(Super important read on key points of the plan – pay close attention to prediction 3: "3. US dominance is over. We have a handful of global powers. Nation states will have staged a comeback, writes Robert Muggah, Research Director at the Igarapé Institute. Instead of a single force, a handful of countries – the U.S., Russia, China, Germany, India and Japan chief among them – show semi-imperial tendencies. However, at the same time, the role of the state is threatened by trends including the rise of cities and the spread of online identities "

Prediction 5: "5. We are eating much less meat. Rather like our grandparents, we will treat meat as a treat rather than a staple, writes Tim Benton, Professor of Population Ecology at the University of Leeds, UK. It won't be big agriculture or little artisan producers that win, but rather a combination of the two, with convenience food redesigned to be healthier and less harmful to the environment."

5. Who is Klaus Schwab and why does it matter?

World Economic Forum founder Klaus Schwab called for a mandatory global health pass in the form of implantable microchips within 10 years. The interviewer asked Schwab in French, "we are talking about chips that can be implanted. When will that be?"

"Certainly in the next 10 years," Schwab responded.

"And at first we will implant them in our clothes. And then we could imagine that we will implant them in our brains, or in our skin." https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UmQNA0HL1pw&t=54s

I think this is applicable:

- Revelation 13:16,17 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name. (18) Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

  Revelation 20:4 …and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands…

The Bible shows that God spiritually marks his people on their foreheads with his name with what the Bible calls a seal. This is visible in the spiritual realm, and is to show the sealed people belong to God.

- Revelation 22:4 And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

6. What is the Great Reset?

https://www.weforum.org/great-reset

Excerpt: "The context

The Covid-19 crisis, and the political, economic and social disruptions it has caused, is fundamentally changing the traditional context for decision-making. The inconsistencies, inadequacies and contradictions of multiple systems –from health and financial to energy and education – are more exposed than ever amidst a global context of concern for lives, livelihoods and the planet. Leaders find themselves at a historic crossroads, managing short-term pressures against medium- and long-term uncertainties.

There is an urgent need for global stakeholders to cooperate in simultaneously managing the direct consequences of the COVID-19 crisis. To improve the state of the world, the World Economic Forum is starting The Great Reset initiative.

The opportunity

As we enter a unique window of opportunity to shape the recovery, this initiative will offer insights to help inform all those determining the future state of global relations, the direction of national economies, the priorities of societies, the nature of business models and the management of a global commons. Drawing from the vision and vast expertise of the leaders engaged across the Forum's communities, the Great Reset initiative has a set of dimensions to build a new social contract that honours the dignity of every human being." Below this statement, the 17 SDG are referenced as the loose plan to bring this about.

Here, it is all tied together, with COVID-19 at the center:

Some goals for the January 2021 G20 Convention in Geneva on climate change and bringing about the "Great Reset."
https://www.weforum.org/press/2020/06/the-great-reset-a-unique-twin-summit-to-begin-2021/

Excerpt: "The announcement of the Great Reset is made by HRH The Prince of Wales and Klaus Schwab during a virtual meeting today at 14:30 Central European Summer Time and can be followed here "

Geneva, Switzerland, 3 June 2020 – "The Great Reset" will be the theme of a unique twin summit to be convened by the World Economic Forum in January 2021. The 51st World Economic Forum Annual Meeting will bring together global leaders from government, business and civil society, and stakeholders from around the world in a unique configuration that includes both in-person and virtual dialogues.

"We only have one planet and we know that climate change could be the next global disaster with even more dramatic consequences for humankind. We have to decarbonize the economy in the short window still remaining and bring our thinking and behaviour once more into harmony with nature," said Klaus Schwab, Founder and Executive Chairman of the World Economic Forum.

"In order to secure our future and to prosper, we need to evolve our economic model and put people and planet at the heart of global value creation. If there is one critical lesson to learn from this crisis, it is that we need to put nature at the heart of how we operate. We simply can't waste more time," said HRH The Prince of Wales.

"The Great Reset is a welcome recognition that this human tragedy must be a wake-up call. We must build more equal, inclusive and sustainable economies and societies that are more resilient in the face of pandemics, climate change and the many other global changes we face," said António Guterres, Secretary-General, United Nations, New York.

"A Great Reset is necessary to build a new social contract that honours the dignity of every human being," added Schwab "The global health crisis has laid bare the unsustainability of our old system in terms of social cohesion, the lack of equal opportunities and inclusiveness. Nor can we turn our backs on the evils of racism and discrimination. We need to build into this new social contract our intergenerational responsibility to ensure that we live up to the expectations of young people." [Keep this in mind for later]

"COVID-19 has accelerated our transition into the age of the Fourth Industrial Revolution. We have to make sure that the new technologies in the digital, biological and physical world remain human-centred and serve society as a whole, providing everyone with fair access," he said.

"This global pandemic has also demonstrated again how interconnected we are. We have to restore a functioning system of smart global cooperation structured to address the challenges of the next 50 years. The Great Reset will require us to integrate all stakeholders of global society into a community of common interest, purpose and action," said Schwab. "We need a change of mindset, moving from short-term to long-term thinking, moving from shareholder capitalism to stakeholder responsibility. Environmental, social and good governance have to be a measured part of corporate and governmental accountability," he added.

This innovative summit will be a very different Annual Meeting, reflecting the spirit of the Great Reset. It will provide a unique opportunity at the beginning of 2021 to bring together the key global government and business leaders in Davos, yet framed within a global multistakeholder summit driven by the younger generation to ensure that the Great Reset dialogue pushes beyond the boundaries of traditional thinking and is truly forward-oriented.

To do so, the World Economic Forum will draw on thousands of young people in more than 400 cities around the world (the Global Shapers Community) who will be interconnected with a powerful virtual hub network to interact with the leaders in Davos… "

"In the run-up to the Annual Meeting, the Forum will host a virtual series, The Great Reset Dialogues. These dialogues are a joint initiative of the World Economic Forum and HRH The Prince of Wales. Contributions to the Great Reset will also be invited through UpLink, the World Economic Forum's digital platform to crowdsource innovations for the Sustainable Development Goals."

As you can imagine, there are many additional documents, agencies, manifestos, coalitions, agendas, etc. etc. etc., but it would take a lot of time to cover, as it has taken me years to find out about them and research. As a matter of course, some will be encountered as you read below, but I won't go into any substantial detail about them.

Now that I've covered the basics of what the plans are of these entities above, I am moving onto where the concerns I have with the church stem from.

1. List of religious organizations who have partnered with United Nations Agenda 2030 via The UN Interagency Task Force on Religion and Sustainable Development (UN IATF-R)

Just like the WEF is an "economic arm" to A2030 which is the plan to bring about this "New World Order", there are other "arms" in the plan. This one is the "religion arm":

ACT Alliance
Alliance of Religions and Conservation/ARC
The Alliance of Religions and Conservation is a United Kingdom-based international organisation founded by Prince Philip, in 1995. (Prince Phillip is also in part, in charge of the WEF initiatives) ARC is a secular body whose aim is to assist the major religions of the world to develop environmental programmes based on their own core teachings, beliefs and practices.

GreenFaith
https://greenfaith.org/

"Because the Earth and all people are sacred and at risk, GreenFaith is building a global, multi-faith climate and environmental movement.

"The Green New Deal (GND) is a bold and compelling proposal to transform the US energy system in a fundamentally new direction, fueled by values of love, justice, and compassion. The initiative is a comprehensive answer to the deadly Achilles' heels of modern economies: dependence on dirty energy, low-paying jobs, environmental degradation, and growing inequity. For people of faith, the GND is a tangible expression of key values that animate their visions of a better world."

Inter-Religious Climate and Ecology Network
https://www.ice-network.net/advocacy

"Last year in Paris, the international community reached a historic climate treaty, where 195 countries agreed to limit the average global temperature rise to below 2.0 degrees Celsius above pre-industrial levels, and to implement their intended nationally determined contributions for reducing greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions. It took 20 years to reach such a consensus since inter-governmental discussions on climate change were initiated in 1995."

2. CIVIL SOCIETY:

I found this by typing "civil society" into search on churchofjesuschrist.org, here:
https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/church/news/bishop-causse-speaks-at-un-civil-society-conference-about-the-necessity-of-sacrificing-for-a-better-world?lang=eng

Note the title: Bishop Caussé Speaks at U.N. Civil Society Conference about the Necessity of Sacrificing for a Better World

Excerpt: "Bishop Caussé spoke on behalf of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, one of the conference sponsors and accredited partners with the U.N."

It should be noted that the UN Civil Society Conference was held in NYC from inception until 2008. After then, it has been held in influential/UN-aligned "pilot" cities. The conference was again held in NYC in 2015 and 2018. In 2019, it was held in Salt Lake. I bring this up because few other cities have sponsored the UNCSC worldwide, but the only other US city the UN has used to host this conference is SLC. (see below – highlighted text)

"In 2008 the conference reached a new level when it celebrated its first edition outside the United Nations Headquarters in New York. In celebration of the 60th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the 61st UN DPI/NGO Conference took place in Paris, France under the theme "Reaffirming Human Rights for All". The following year, the Conference was hosted by the City of Mexico, Mexico where the theme was "For Peace and Disarmament: Disarm Now!" In 2010 the Conference moved to Melbourne, Australia, where the discussion tackled the issue of global health, under the title: "Advance Global Health. Achieve the Millennium Development Goals." The city of Bonn in Germany hosted the 64th UN DPI/NGO (Non-Governmental Orgs) Conference under the banner: "Sustainable Societies. Responsive Global Citizens," where the proceedings discussed sustainability and volunteerism." Source: https://www.un.org/en/un-civil-society-conference Volunteerism was mandatory in Cuba, Germany, Russia, China as the aforementioned "Civil Duties." My mother was actually part of the Cuban militia, as well as other "volunteer" programs before she woke up.

Mayor Jackie Biskupski, the first openly Lesbian mayor of SLC, also highlighted Salt Lake City's Climate Positive Plan, a path to transition to 100% clean energy by 2032 and reduce carbon output 80% by 2024.

🎬 Salt Lake City Department of Economic Development: Global Scale Challenges Start at the Local Level

The Pledge: "We, as members of civil society, adopt this document to advance the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, building on the education and global citizenship focus of Gyeongju (2016) and the concept of people-centered multilateralism we developed in New York (2018). This year, we concentrate specifically on Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) 11: "to make cities and human settlements inclusive, safe, resilient, and sustainable by 2030." We underscore the need to understand cities and communities as central to the achievement of all SDGs and not only SDG11. We highlight the importance of inclusivity, peace, family, education, youth, and the empowerment of women and girls. Further, we explore the ethical development of the economy, infrastructure, and technology needed to support balanced, sustainable communities. We recognize the interdependence of rural and urban prosperity, as well as the need to address the specific conditions of mountainous areas and small island developing States. We also highlight the need for collaboration of governments, civil society, and the United Nations in this work and stress the urgent need for climate action." (Island nations like Tonga, Samoa, etc. and the West Coast of the US)

You can read more about the mission here: https://www.un.org/en/civilsociety/ "The Civil Society Unit of the UN Department of Global Communications holds Briefings on a regular basis on topics on the UN's agenda that are of interest or relevant to the work of civil society organizations." It can be assumed that The Church is now a civil society organization.

Further: "The association of NGOs (Non-Governmental Organizations) is based on their commitment to uphold the principles of the UN, support the Organization's activities and spread the word about issues on its agenda…"
I originally found this on LDS.org by search criteria "Civil Society" where I found that spoken at the Civil Society Conference in August of 2019 in Salt Lake.

Here, in this video, the UN has set up in SLC, UT as an over-riding entity to the government of the city, AND America's Constitution. This is because the Highest "Law" is the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UN-UDHR) as it supersedes all national constitutions, national laws and codes, within every nation.
Source Video— https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KocnwEo78bg

I won't go into this, but in 2018 in NYC, the UN had The Third Review Conference (RevCon) of the United Nations' Program of Action (PoA) on Small Arms and Light Weapons, whereby the United States adopted "a renewed commitment to prevent, combat and eradicate the illicit trade in small arms and light weapons in all its aspects."

In this one, Sharon Eubanks (1st Counselor of the RS, LDS Charities Director, as well as church liaison to the UN) makes some statements at the G20 Convention in Argentina.
https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/church/news/sister-eubank-addresses-global-interfaith-forum-says-religion-wont-happen-without-women?lang=eng
"Sister Sharon Eubank, First Counselor in the Relief Society General Presidency and director of LDS Charities, participated in the recent G20 Interfaith Forum in Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Eubank:

- "QUESTION 3: Can you identify three main challenges to women's full engagement in furthering the Agenda 2030 focusing on SDG 5 (gender equality), SDG 10 (reduced inequalities), and SDG 16 (peace, justice, and strong institutions)? What are the possible ways forward to overcome these challenges?

  Sister Eubank: "The challenge I choose to highlight is the assumption in policy circles that religion has nothing helpful to say about women because it is traditional, patriarchal, and the source of conflict. That is not only untrue, but it ignores the importance of religious faith to women themselves, 80 percent of whom identify with a religion and look to it for guidance. At the same time, religions can be actually held up in patriarchal constructs and practices.

  Part of the look forward is in recognizing the importance of mobilizing women of faith to work on Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) issues and to acknowledge their faith not as a barrier but the key to progress and success. The 2030 agenda won't happen without religion, and religion won't happen without women. They are the movers.

  The work would not be nearly where it is today without three women, and I want to pay tribute to them: Dr. Katherine Marshall, executive director of World Faiths' Development Dialogue (and I recommend her book Women, Religion, and Peacebuilding); Dr. Azza Karam, who chairs the UN Interagency taskforce on Religion and Development; and Jean Duff, a founder of the Partnership for Faith and Development. These fearless women have worked tirelessly for decades to ensure the faith voices of women are included at every level of development and that faiths open themselves to healthy and transformative practices that benefit women and their families.

  The SDG {17 Sustainable Goals of Agenda 2030} goals on gender equality, peace, and justice are tackling how to change culture and behavior. Faith has a power greater than almost anything else to motivate people to act, to change minds, to alter behavior.

  The way forward is to do just what this forum has as its goal. Invite and respect as many faith actors as possible, build understanding among them, and integrate them into every aspect of the 2030 SDG agenda. It will lead to the greatest success possible for equity, justice, and peace."

- *"The 2030 agenda is relevant to us because if we don't work within the 2030 agenda, nobody is gonna pay attention to us… One of the things that I do do, is I wear my little pin, which is symbolizing the 17 sustainable development goals, as a way of showing that I'm committed to trying to achieve a lot of those goals." LDS Church/Deseret Management Corp (DMC) has recently hired Aaron Sherinian as senior vice president of global reach. Sherinian is a fresh addition to the global agenda with experience at the UN. You can read his complete experience here:

Below the Twitter screenshots of what Aaron Sheridan believes, which are troubling, is a list compiled by the person that runs LDS Freedom Forum. I am copying and pasting it below. While the above has been my own research, the below is not, but I have looked at these links in compiling this letter, and they all come from the actual sources.

The Church was a major financial sponsor of a "Utah Economic and Energy Summit" on October 26, 2020, featuring Richard Haass - President of the Council on Foreign Relations. The CFR is the promotional "arm" of the plan. Most influential politicians, academics and media personalities are members, and it uses its influence to promote these ideas in all possible ways.

https://www.scidev.net/asia-pacific/news/oral-polio-drops-linked-to-paralysis-in-india/

Excerpt: “[NEW DELHI] While India’s oral polio vaccine (OPV) drives have eliminated polio from the country, they have also resulted in over 490,000 cases of paralysis during 2000—2017, says a new study based on national surveillance statistics.

India, a country of 1.3 billion people, was declared polio-free by the World Health Organization (WHO) in May 2014 in what was considered a landmark in the global drive to eradicate polio. Currently, the wild polio virus, which attacks the nervous system leading to childhood paralytic disease, is confined to Afghanistan, Nigeria and Pakistan…. “

“The study suggests that OPV were responsible for inducing paralysis and speculates that "repeated doses of the live virus vaccine delivered to the intestine may colonise the gut and alter the viral microbiome of the intestine". “

- "Son is a being that God has lent us to do a crash course on how to love someone more than ourselves, how to change our worst faults to set a better example, to learn to have courage." These are the words that José Saramago, Portuguese writer awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature, addresses to his parents. Being a father and mother is undoubtedly the most difficult "job" in the world, and although it is also very rewarding, it is often not recognized as it should. Also for this reason in 2012 the United Nations General Assembly established an anniversary to honor parents all over the world: World Parents' Day.

> This celebration, which falls on June 1 of each year, offers a further opportunity to value fathers and mothers in every part of the globe for their selfless commitment to their children and for all the sacrifices they make during their well-being…. The United Nations recognizes their vital importance in ensuring that children grow up in a safe environment in which they can thrive, developing their personality in a context characterized by joy, love and understanding. The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development is a programme of action for people, planet and prosperity signed in September 2015 by the governments of the 193 UN member countries. The main objectives listed therein are to end poverty, promote economic prosperity and protect children. It is a common certainty that families play a fundamental role in achieving these goals, helping to reduce the rate of poverty, to ensure a healthy lifestyle for people of all ages and to offer opportunities for growth and education useful to achieve greater equality among all human beings. In addition, we know that parents also play a role of eternal resonance. When they teach the savior's gospel to their children, they give them a way to learn to know Him and trust in Him, thereby changing their lives…."

4. The COVID-19 Vaccine and Aborted Fetal Cells:_____

https://press.vatican.va/content/salastampa/it/bollettino/pubblico/2020/12/29/0697/01628.html#notaesp

The Vatican and C19 vaccines… article put out by the Vatican in Italian, has English translation which can be accessed along the page by clicking on the link titled: "Traduccione in lingua inglesa" which means ''English language translation." Beginning with point number 3, it states:

"Research and production

3. The first issue that is often raised around vaccine production concerns the biological materials used for their development. According to the available information, some of the vaccines that are now ready to be approved or applied use cell lines from voluntarily aborted foetuses in more phases of the process, while others use them in specific laboratory tests.[7]"

Footnote 7 from the link above goes into which vaccines use aborted fetal cells:
https://lozierinstitute.org/update-covid-19-vaccine-candidates-and-abortion-derived-cell-lines/

How these "cells" are obtained: Some, like HEK (Human Embryonic Kidney) and HER (Human Embryonic Retinal) cells are obtained from fetuses that are kept alive while the harvesting is taking place – no anesthesia is used. This link is a collection of quotes from a book and a publication written on the matter by scientists that have been involved, and what experts in the field have said, with attached links to said book, publication and quotes therein. This is why I am including it.
https://www.lifesitenews.com/news/babies-were-aborted-alive-placed-in-fridge-to-harvest-cell-lines-used-in-some-vaccines-researcher/ The original cell lines for HEK293 came from a baby girl that was aborted in the 70's, with a prolific cell line.

Excerpts: "HEK stands for Human Embryonic Kidney. But 293 stands for the 293rd experiment that this particular researcher did to develop the cell lines." "Embryonic tissues were prepared in the following manner. Whenever possible the embryo was removed from the amniotic sac under sterile precautions, transferred to a sterile towel and kept at 5 C until dissected," (bold added) they added.

A baby can feel pain in the womb likely from 8 weeks gestation, but studies confirm that for sure at the age of 12 weeks gestation: https://jme.bmj.com/content/46/1/3 . Human baby parts are sold by the piece by companies such as Planned Parenthood. Project Veritas and others reprinted the results of the undercover investigation regarding the selling of fetal and embryonic body parts in 2016. I am including this particular link because all the links to the videos are in the article and it saves me some leg work.:
https://www.lifenews.com/2016/07/14/new-video-exposes-planned-parenthoods-illicit-baby-parts-trafficking-scheme/

Excerpt: "One year ago today, the series of expose' videos began that highlighted how America's biggest abortion business sells the body parts from aborted babies to further profit from doing abortions. It all began a year ago today when the first video caught Planned Parenthood's top doctor describing how the abortion business sells the body parts of aborted babies.

Then 11 more videos followed (all listed below) that exposed Planned Parenthood officials bragging about making money selling aborted babies, making arrangements to sell more, and how staff from procurement companies would then re-sell the baby parts to large research universities and scientists. Eventually, Congressional and state investigations would uncover more alarming evidence, multiple states would defund Planned Parenthood and others passed laws prohibiting or limiting the practice of selling baby parts.

Now, the Center for Medical Progress has released a new video compiling the greatest hits of its undercover work.

The Center for Medical Progress' new video provides an overview of the past year of revelations from multiple sources about Planned Parenthood's illicit baby body parts trafficking scheme.

At a business lunch meeting with CMP investigators David Daleiden and Sandra Merritt, Dr. Nucatola remarked over wine and salad: "We've been very good at getting heart, lung, liver, because we know that, so I'm not gonna crush that part, I'm gonna basically crush below, I'm gonna crush above, and I'm gonna see if I can get it all intact." Nucatola also said of Planned Parenthood affiliates' payments for fetal organs: "If they can do a little better than break even, and do so in a way that, you know, seems reasonable, they're happy to do that."

Dr. Gatter haggled over the price per fetal specimen with the undercover investigators, insisting, "You know in negotiations the person who throws out the figure first is at a loss, right?" and laughing, "I want a Lamborghini."

Dr. Ginde suggested ways to maximize payments for fetal tissue: "I think a per-item thing works a little better, just because we can see how much we can get out of it." Melissa Farrell in Texas promised, "If we alter our process, and we are able to obtain intact fetal cadavers, we can make it part of the budget that any dissections are this, and splitting the specimens into different shipments is this. It's all just a matter of line items."

- Sharon Eubank in a multi-faith interview addresses aborted fetal cells in vaccines, and wants to emulate "His Holiness", the Pope in getting people to overcome their resistance to the presence of aborted fetal cells in vaccines.
  Between the 10:54 – 13:20 mark, she commends "His Holiness" the Pope for overcoming the objections to how these stem cells are obtained. Source- https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_RyPufTY01I&t=3894s

Recently, a whistleblower came forth and gave some relevant information to Project Veritas about aborted fetal cells in the C19 vaccines. The higher-ups at Pfizer, where she was employed, sent emails back and forth stating that they should keep this information from the public.

5. Covid-19 Vaccine, Safety, Efficacy and the Church:

President Nelson and the First Presidency: "The vaccine is safe and effective"

Safety:

VAERS is the Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System put in place in 1990. It is a voluntary reporting system, though roughly half the injuries are reported by doctors. It has been estimated to account for only 1% reporting (see the Lazarus Report) of vaccine injuries. The data collected is available for download at vaers.hhs.gov ,but it is somewhat difficult to search and navigate, as it has a lot of criteria to choose from.

"OpenVAERS is a website built by doctors, parents and others that have been affected by vaccines in a negative way."

The OpenVAERS Project allows browsing and searching of the reports without the need to compose an advanced search (more advanced searches can be done at medalerts.org or vaers.hhs.gov)."

If you go to www.Openvaers.com you can see the statistical numbers given for COVID vaccine injuries and deaths. You can click on any of these numbers for more data. (These numbers update each Friday night)
The numbers as of now are:

1,697,752 REPORTS OF VACCINE ADVERSE EVENTS IN VAERS (total reports for all vaccines)

18,078 COVID Vaccine Reported Deaths / 27,155 Total Reported Deaths

88,910 Total COVID Vaccine Reported Hospitalizations/167,662 Total Reported Hospitalizations (COVID vax vs. total)

856,917 COVID Vaccine Adverse Event Reports

To read the individual cases, beginning on page 1, simply scroll down. There are 12 cases given on page one. There are 2,496 pages, each with 12 reported adverse events for the Covid vaccine.

If one is injured by a vaccine, who is liable?

https://www.law.cornell.edu/uscode/text/42/300aa-22

According to 42 U.S. Code § 300aa–22, "No vaccine manufacturer shall be liable in a civil action for damages arising from a vaccine-related injury or death associated with the administration of a vaccine after October 1, 1988, if the injury or death resulted from side effects that were unavoidable even though the vaccine was properly prepared and was accompanied by proper directions and warnings."

In other words, companies that manufacture vaccines are not liable if someone has an allergic reaction, injury, or dies after being vaccinated.

Effectiveness:
Dr. Gérard Delépine from France just published a study based on public data from the countries with the highest vaccination rates that clearly shows that the nations with the highest vaccine numbers appear to be having a surge in hospitalizations as well.

6. The issue of the Popes and the Catholic Church :

https://www.vatican.va/content/francesco/it/messages/pont-messages/2021/documents/20211030-messaggio-forum-pace.html

"Faced with the consequences of the great storm that upset the world, our conscience therefore calls us to a responsible hope, that is, concretely, not to follow the easy way of returning to a "normality" marked by injustice, but to accept the challenge of assuming the crisis as "a concrete opportunity for conversion, transformation, to rethink our lifestyle and our economic and social systems". The Vatican is also onboard with the Great Reset, the NWO and the 17 SDG's

According to Jack and Diane Ruhl of the National Catholic Reporter, who decided to research this particular topic, since 1950, the Vatican has spent $3,994,797,060.10 in child abuse settlements. That's billion, not million. Here is a Catholic Newspaper that goes into this.
https://www.ncronline.org/news/accountability/ncr-research-costs-sex-abuse-crisis-us-church-underestimated The figure is based on a three-month investigation of data, which includes a review of over 7,800 articles from LexisNexis Academic and NCR databases and information from BishopAccountability.org. Reports from the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops were also used.

If the amount of money dished out was divided evenly amongst the U.S.'s 197 dioceses, each one would get almost $20 million.

There are numerous other stories about the Catholic church that are not myth or legend. For instance:

7. The Veneration of Men/Leaning on the Arm of Flesh:

"We have heard men who hold the priesthood remark that they would do anything they were told to do by those who preside over them (even) if they knew it was wrong; but such obedience as this is worse than folly to us; it is slavery in the extreme; and the man who would thus willingly degrade himself, should not claim a rank among intelligent beings, until he turns from his folly. A man of God would despise the idea. Others, in the extreme exercise of their almighty authority have taught that such obedience was necessary, and that no matter what the saints were told to do by their presidents, they should do it without any questions. When the Elders of Israel will so far indulge in these extreme notions of obedience as to teach them to the people, it is generally because they have it in their hearts to do wrong themselves."

Joseph Smith, Millennial Star, vol.14 #38, pp. 593-95

"Elder Neal Andersen leads the Brethren in referring to President Nelson the most in his talks, having named him 98 times in conference since Nelson became president and 23 times in his last Conference talk alone. (Source – Salt Lake Tribune) President Nelson "continues to be referenced more than any Latter-day Saint prophet with 133 mentions — whether named, quoted or footnoted" — in this last month's General Conference."

We have been told to follow the "wise counsel of world leaders and of scientists," by complying. "Be good Christians." "Good global citizens." (Source) and remember globalcitizen.org, who is involved, and their message.

I wonder - Is being a "good global citizen" a vital part of Christianity? The Lord has advised us over and over to be separate from the world.

- Do not love the world or anything in the world. If anyone loves the world, love for the Father is not in them. 1 John 2:15

- Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Romans 12:2

- What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Mark 8:36
  Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. James 4: 4 There are many more.

Elder Rasband, who also spoke at the G20, states in this video that "most members" are obeying the prophet's "request" to wear a mask and to get vaccinated, and that it's a small minority that they are disappointed with for not complying. He states he would not hesitate for a second to call such people to repentance.
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=okKP2dJYIW4

My questions to Elder Rasband are:

1. If it's a "request" then why is it problematic that some are choosing to not comply with this request, as their individual conscience or circumstance may dictate? Why the call to repentance over choosing the opposite?

2. If vaccinations work, why be concerned about those who decide against it?

3. If it is a request, why are unvaccinated young adults excluded from BYU campus AND online: "PROVO, Utah — Access to Brigham Young University's academic website may depend on reporting your vaccine status. BYU is informing staff and students they will have until August 19th to report their status. Those who don't report will have limited access to the University's academic portal website, myBYU. "
https://kslnewsradio.com/1953210/access-to-byus-academic-website-depends-on-reporting-vaccine-status/

4. Or enter the MTC, and go on a mission without it? https://provo.mtc.byu.edu/

5. Why can no one see the Nativity display and lights at temple square without the vaccine? "While in-person attendance will return after a year away, church officials added that attendees of any Temple Square events this season "are required to wear masks and be vaccinated if in the eligible age categories." The COVID-19 vaccine is now approved for ages 5 and up."
https://www.ksl.com/article/50277320/limited-temple-square-christmas-lights-to-return-vaccine-required-for-holiday-programs

6. Why is the church not allowing bishops to give religious exemptions for the vaccine?
https://www.sltrib.com/religion/2021/09/10/lds-church-wont-help/ "No church official can sign any kind of document supporting the notion that church doctrine/teaching is opposed to vaccination or that the church is opposed to vaccination mandates," reads a letter sent to all bishops and stake (regional) presidents from the faith's Area Presidency. "As to the former, the opposite is true [the church not only supports but also encourages vaccination]…" In some instances, the letter adds, "signing such documents could even be perjury."

7. What of personal agency?

To that point, Elder Oaks recently stated:

- "But even though the First Amendment obviously guarantees the right to exercise or practice religious beliefs and affiliations, that right is not absolute, President Oaks explained. "As advocates for religious freedom, we must yield to the fact that in a nation with citizens of many different religious beliefs or disbeliefs, the government must sometimes limit the right of some to act upon their beliefs when it is necessary to protect the health, safety and welfare of all."

https://www.thechurchnews.com/leaders-and-ministry/2021-11-12/president-oaks-joseph-smith-lecture-virginia-religious-freedom-nondiscrimination-232986

"I established the Constitution of this land, by the hands of wise men whom I raised up unto this very purpose, and redeemed the land by the shedding of blood." (D&C 101:80)

On criticizing the Lord's anointed:

https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/ensign/1987/02/criticism?lang=eng

- Oaks: "Evil speaking of the Lord's anointed is in a class by itself. It is one thing to depreciate a person who exercises corporate power or even government power. It is quite another thing to criticize or depreciate a person for the performance of an office to which he or she has been called of God. It does not matter that the criticism is true."
  Video where Oaks says similar: Time from 0:00 to 0:54 seconds https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=W7plCcltnF8 – His countenance here scares me. He doesn't look very Godly.

While respect is warranted, and civility brings about good fruits, etc., I find nowhere in scripture where it says that questioning the mortal leadership of this or any church is going against the word. Perhaps I am missing something, but we are told to be like lions – strong and bold. Jesus also was not shy in calling out the power structures, which is why they persecuted Him.

When the story broke about the church potentially using tithes to prop up several struggling business ventures, it was noted that they had not disclosed their net worth since the 50's. It stands at 100 billion. Some perspective on that - source of picture below:
https://www.washingtonpost.com/investigations/mormon-church-has-misled-members-on-100-billion-tax-exempt-investment-fund-whistleblower-alleges/2019/12/16/e3619bd2-2004-11ea-86f3-3b5019d451db_story.html

- This would not be an issue, except that the church donates a mere $40 million to charity each year.
  Of course, they do good, help others and provide meals, etc. I'm sure other good comes from it, as described below in the LDS charities declaration, though they do not state how much money goes to what.
  However, some of that given by LDS Charities includes UN initiatives, vaccine programs and the like, as listed by the companies receiving the charitable contributions.

  I don't feel, in my heart of hearts, that Jesus would approve with how the money is being used. I also feel that we are aligning with the Abominable Church of the Devil, as written in scripture, and defined by H Verlan Andersen as Communism, and found in these scriptures:
  https://www.churchofjesuschrist.org/study/scriptures/triple-index/church-great-and-abominable?lang=eng

Donations, as stated by the Church:
http://m.deseretnews.com/article/865657898/LDS-Church-welfare-humanitarian-efforts-average-40-million-per-year-apostle-says.html
Additional information: https://askinglot.com/open-detail/324443 and https://www.latterdaysaintcharities.org/

Current membership is roughly 16 million worldwide. Some sources say that ½ of the 16 million is active, so 8 million members? Some figures say 1/3 is active, and that would be 5.3 million, approximately – I'll average this:

($40M Donations / 6.65 Members) = $6.02 per member given in charitable aid per year

I'd like to know how much goes into investments, and what happens to that money. Is some of this part of the Bishop's Storehouse? Bottom line is that is pretty low, and that is very misleading and also disappointing, given the sacrifice that the members make to give a tithe, and that they are kept out of the temple unless they give a full 10%.

8. Russell M. Nelson's Daughter and the Child Sex Ring:

I have studied Satanic ritual abuse, and some of this sounds like that is what it is. No justice will be served here, and that is an absolute tragedy. I am not saying Nelson was involved, as nothing points to that, but the church was told this happened and they did not do much to keep these molesters from moving onto other children, and hurting them.

9. Relevant Quotes From Past Church Presidents and Others:_____

The Devolution of Utah into Wickedness:

This excerpt by Joseph F. Smith in 1870

- "Instead of raising themselves to the standard of the Gospel, they are content to descend to the level of the wicked and corrupt. Many of the Elders of Israel who have responsibilities resting upon them, with which they will find they cannot trifle with impunity, are taking this course all the time. What wonder, then, that the Spirit of the Lord is grieved? What wonder that the Latter-day Saints need to be preached to continually? It is no wonder to me when I contemplate the condition of the people of these valleys, and especially Salt Lake City, Ogden, and our cities contiguous to the railways (Journal of Discourses, Vol.13, p.339 – p.340)."

Here are the words of J. Golden Kimball, in a conference address in 1930, quoting his father spoken in 1868

- *"I claim not to be a prophet, but I am a son of a prophet, and I expect to give you evidence-whether you question the truth of it or not-that shall be left with you-that Heber C. Kimball was a prophet of God. President Brigham Young on more than one occasion said: 'Heber is my prophet, and I love to hear him prophesy.' In May, 1868-that is sixty-two years ago–he said: 'After a while the gentiles will gather in Salt Lake City by the thousands, and this will be among the wicked cities of the world.'"

Heber C. Kimball, in the Journal of Discourses, Vol.11, p.82 – p.83, had this to say on the subject in 1865:

- "I do not say but that you are just as good men and women in this place as in any other place in the mountains; yea, I admit that the people are better in the country towns than in Great Salt Lake City, for the froth and scum of hell seem to concentrate there, and those who live in the City have to come in contact with it; and with persons who mingle with robbers, and liars, and thieves, and with whores and whore-masters, etc. Such wicked men will also introduce themselves into Davis County, and among all the settlements throughout these mountains; but where the people are truly righteous and just, wicked men can do them no harm; were the people all righteous who profess to be Latter-day Saints, they would constantly be on their watch against the encroachment of a wicked power. The wicked and corrupt who have settled in our community are taking a course to lead away those who are willing to be led away from the truth–those who have turned away from God; and it will be for our good, as a community, if such persons will leave and never again return to our Territory, unless they can do so with a determination to serve God and keep his commandments. I love those who love God; they are more precious to me than gold, and silver, or possessions."

- "As the kingdom of God rises and advances upon the earth, so will the power of Satan increase to impede its progress until God shall purge that power from the earth, and so give the Saints the victory, that they can bear off his kingdom triumphantly in spite of the powers of Satan and wicked men. But so far as the power of Satan extends, just so far will be seen his operations to overthrow all righteousness. There is nothing that would so soon weaken my hope and discourage me as to see this people in full fellowship with the world, and receive no more persecution from them because they are one with them. In such an event, we might bid farewell to the Holy Priesthood with all its blessings, privileges and aids to exaltations, principalities and powers in the eternities of the Gods." (Brigham Young, JD 10:32, 8 April 1862)

- "When we see the time that we can willingly strike hands and have full fellowship with those who despise the Kingdom of God, know ye then that the Priesthood of the Son of God is out of your possession. Let us be careful how we make friends with and fellowship unrighteousness, lest the curse of God descends heavily upon us." (Brigham Young, JD 10:273, 6 October 1863)

- "When 'Mormonism' finds favor with the wicked in this land, it will have gone into the shade; but until the power of the Priesthood is gone, 'Mormonism' will never become popular with the wicked." (Brigham Young, JD 4:38, 31 August 1856)

- "And when the spirit of persecution, the spirit of hatred, of wrath, and malice ceases in the world against this people, it will be the time that this people have apostatized and joined hands with the wicked, and never until then; which I pray may never come." (Brigham Young, JD 4:326-327, 31 May 1857)

Past Presidents of the Church and the UN:

- "This is not a 'Peace Organization, it's a War organization"

J. Reuben Clark warned in 1945, after reading the United Nations Charter, which later became Agenda 21 and Agenda 2030.

". . . Latter-day Saints should have nothing to do with the secret combinations and groups antagonistic to the constitutional law of the land, which the Lord 'suffered to be established,' and which 'should be maintained for the rights and protection of all flesh according to just and holy principles.' " (Gospel Ideals, by David O. McKay p. 306. Italics added.)

David O. McKay

- "Unless the spirit of Christianity permeate the deliberations of the United Nations, dire tragedies await humanity." (Source: David O. McKay. General Conference, October 1947)" https://www.sltrib.com/news/politics/2019/08/26/united-nations-hold/

J. Rueben Clark

- "In furtherance of the general plan in contemplation of a world-state, we have made treaties of alliance containing obligations that infringed upon our sovereignty. We have made multipartite treaties – the League of Nations (which, when it was understood, the people rejected), the United Nations Charter, to which the Senate gave its advice and consent just one month and two days after its signature, the people having no time to examine its merits before it became operative. All of these surrendered some of our sovereignty. Not infrequently they involve commitments for the Chief Executive which he cannot fulfill, as also for the nation which the Chief Executive cannot guarantee shall be carried out. (Source: An Address Delivered by J. Reuben Clark, Jr. to the 67th Annual Congress of The National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, July 1957)

And of course, my favorite, Ezra Taft Benson:

- "The UN is planned tyranny."

  -Chapter 14 of An Enemy Hath Done This

Quotes by Ezra Taft Benson on the UN from his book An Enemy Hath Done This:

- "After many years of observing the UN in operation, after carefully researching the less publicized aspects of this organization and after a great deal of soul-searching, I reluctantly have been forced to the conclusion that the U.N's potential for evil far outweighs its potential for good. Furthermore, the very nature of the organization is such that this evil cannot be corrected without disbanding and starting all over from the bottom up." Pg. 202

- "It has more or less become accepted without particular concern that communists are present at the U.N., not only as delegates, but as full-time employees on the Secretariat staff." Pg. 205

- "Each year for the last ten years, J Edgar Hoover has testified before the appropriations subcommittees of both Houses of Congress and warned the American people that the U.N is not merely an occasional haven for a Soviet agent, but is, in fact, the center of communist espionage in America! The diplomatic immunity afforded to these people due to their U.N. status automatically protects them against arrest for violating the laws of this country." Pg. 205

- "The U.N. record should start us to thinking. Is it an accident? Is it planned? - or is it merely the product of historical forces? It is both! It is the product of historical forces which were planned many years ago. These forces were made inevitable by the very nature and structure of the U.N." Pg. 207

- "We should get out of the U.N. and get the U.N. out of the United States." Pg. 208

- "We should pay no attention to the recommendations of men who call the Constitution an eighteenth-century agrarian document — who apologize for capitalism and free enterprise. We should refuse to follow their siren song of concentrating, increasingly, the powers of government in the Chief Executive, of delegating American sovereign authority to non-American institutions in the United Nations, and pretending that it will bring peace to the world by turning our armed forces over to a U.N. world-wide police force." (Source: Ezra Taft Benson, Title of Liberty 176; from an address given at Los Angeles, CA, 11 Dec 1961))

- "Meantime let us have no further blind devotion to the communist-dominated United Nations." (Source: Ezra Taft Benson December 10,1963. A Race Against Time))

The text is a link "Among the nations of the world today, there are precious few common bonds that could help overcome the clash of cross-purposes that inevitably must arise between groups with such divergent ethnic, linguistic, legal, religious, cultural, and political environments. To add fuel to the fire, the concept woven into all of the present-day proposals for world government (The U.N. foremost among these) is one of unlimited governmental power to impose by force a monolithic set of values and conduct on all groups and individuals whether they like it or not. Far from ensuring peace, such conditions can only enhance the chances of war.

"In this connection it is interesting to point out that the late J. Reuben Clark, who was recently described as 'probably the greatest authority on [the Constitution] during the past fifty years' (American Opinion, April 1966, p. 113), in 1945 – the year the United Nations charter was adopted – made this prediction in his devastating and prophetic 'cursory analysis' of the United Nations Charter:

'There seems no reason to doubt that such real approval as the Charter has among the people is based upon the belief that if the Charter is put into effect, wars will end… The Charter will not certainly end war. Some will ask – why not? In the first place, there is no provision in the Charter itself that contemplates ending war. It is true the Charter provides for force to bring peace, but such use of force is itself war… It is true the Charter is built to prepare for war, not to promote peace… The Charter is a war document, not a peace document.

'Not only does the Charter Organization not prevent future wars, but it makes it practically certain that we will have future wars, and as to such wars it takes from us the power to declare them, to choose the side on which we shall fight, to determine what forces and military equipment we shall use in the war, and to control and command our sons who do the fighting." Notice how President Benson mentions that the UN is communist. Here are some scriptures and quotes from early church leaders that refer to freedom and communism:

https://www.latterdayconservative.com/ezra-taft-benson/secret-combinations/

"My brethren and sisters and friends, in keeping with the spirit of the keynote address of our beloved President, I desire, if the Lord will bless me, to speak to you about the American heritage of freedom–a plan of God*.*

I direct my remarks particularly to the men of America and more especially to those in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, who hold the Holy Priesthood of God.

Every member of the priesthood should understand the divine plan designed by the Lord to raise up the first free people in modern times*. Here is how scripture says it was achieved:...."* Great read.

"Should we disarm? And does it really make any difference whether we disarm unilaterally or collaterally? Either course of action would surrender our military independence. Should we pool our economic resources or our monetary system with those of other nations to create some kind of regional common market? It would constitute the surrender of our economic independence. Should we enter into treaties such as the U.N. Covenants which would obligate our citizens to conform their social behavior, their educational practices to rules and regulations set down by international agencies? Such treaty obligations amount to the voluntary and piece-meal surrender of our political independence. The answer to all such questions is a resounding "no," for the simple reason that the only way America can survive in this basically hostile and topsy-turvy world is to remain militarily, economically and politically strong and independent.

"We must put off our rose-colored glasses, quit repeating those soothing but entirely false statements about world unity and brotherhood, and look to the world as it is, not as we would like it to become. Such an objective, and perhaps painful, survey leads to but one conclusion. We would be committing national suicide to surrender any of our independence, and chain ourselves to other nations in such a sick and turbulent world. President George Washington, in his immortal Farewell Address, explained our true policy in this regard:
'The great rule of conduct for us, in regard to foreign nations, is in extending our commercial relations to have with them as little political connection as possible…'Tis our true policy to steer clear of permanent alliances with any portion of the foreign world…Taking care always to keep ourselves, by suitable establishments on a respectably defensive posture, we may safely trust to temporary alliances for extraordinary emergencies.'"

(Comments from United Nations Secretary General about President Hinckley)

"A true friend of the United Nations, he was deeply committed to the advancing of our shared goal of improving the lives of people in need around the globe," said Ban Ki-moon, Secretary General of the United Nations."

The new Salt Lake Temple grounds is being revamped to look like the United Nations headquarters. The symbol of the world on church office building is similar to the UN logo and the circle of flags, is similar to the UN headquarters:

- What good is it for someone to gain the whole world, yet forfeit their soul? Mark 8:36
  Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. James 4: 4

- 20 And now I, Moroni, do not write the manner of their oaths and combinations, for it hath been made known unto me that they are had among all people, and they are had among the Lamanites.

21 And they have caused the destruction of this people of whom I am now speaking (us), and also the destruction of the people of Nephi.

22 And whatsoever nation shall uphold such secret combinations, to get power and gain, until they shall spread over the nation, behold, they shall be destroyed; for the Lord will not suffer that the blood of his saints [not referring to LDS people], which shall be shed by them, shall always cry unto him from the ground for vengeance upon them and yet he avenge them not.

23 Wherefore, O ye Gentiles [that's us], it is wisdom in God that these things should be shown unto you, that thereby ye may repent of your sins, and suffer not that these murderous combinations shall get above you, which are built up to get power and gain—and the work, yea, even the work of destruction come upon you, yea, even the sword of the justice of the Eternal God shall fall upon you, to your overthrow and destruction if ye shall suffer these things to be.

24 Wherefore, the Lord commandeth you, when ye shall see these things come among you that ye shall awake to a sense of your awful situation, because of this secret combination which shall be among you; or wo be unto it, because of the blood of them who have been slain; for they cry from the dust for vengeance upon it, and also upon those who built it up. [Moroni is saying that this secret combination shall be among us in the latter days. His admonition to awake and realize the awful situation is directed at us].

The Book of Mormon makes it very clear that in the latter days there are save two churches only--The Church of the Devil and the Church of the Lamb of God. It also makes it very clear as to what the church of the devil is and that it stands absolutely (100%) opposed to the Church of the Lamb of God (1Ne chapters 13-15).

- Mormon 8

  38 O ye pollutions, ye hypocrites, ye teachers, who sell yourselves for that which will canker, why have ye polluted the holy church of God? Why are ye ashamed to take upon you the name of Christ? Why do ye not think that greater is the value of an endless happiness than that misery which never dies--because of the praise of the world?

1 Nephi 14:9-13:

- 9 And it came to pass that he said unto me: Look, and behold that great and abominable church, which is the mother of abominations, whose founder is the [a]devil.

  10 And he said unto me: Behold there are save [a]two churches only; the one is the church of the Lamb of God, and the [b]other is the church of the [c]devil; wherefore, [d]whoso belongeth not to the church of the Lamb of God belongeth to that great church, which is the mother of abominations; and she is the [e]whore of all the earth.

  11 And it came to pass that I looked and beheld the whore of all the earth, and she sat upon many [a]waters; and she had dominion over [b]all the earth, among all nations, kindreds, tongues, and people.

  12 And it came to pass that I beheld the church of the Lamb of God, and its numbers were [a]few, because of the wickedness and abominations of the whore who sat upon many waters; nevertheless, I beheld that the church of the Lamb, who were the saints of God, were also upon [b]all the face of the earth; and their dominions upon the face of the earth were small, because of the wickedness of the great whore whom I saw.

13 And it came to pass that I beheld that the great mother of abominations did gather together multitudes upon the face of all the earth, among all the nations of the Gentiles, to [a]fight against the Lamb of God.

1 Nephi 13:4–9

- 4 And it came to pass that I saw among the nations of the Gentiles the formation of a great church.

  5 And the angel said unto me: Behold the formation of a church which is most abominable above all other churches, which slayeth the saints of God, yea, and tortureth them and bindeth them down, and yoketh them with a yoke of iron, and bringeth them down into captivity.

- Elder Bruce R. McConkie (1915–85) of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles defined the great and abominable church: "The titles church of the devil and great and abominable church are used to identify all … organizations of whatever name or nature—whether political, philosophical, educational, economic, social, fraternal, civic, or religious—which are designed to take men on a course that leads away from God and his laws and thus from salvation in the kingdom of God" (Mormon Doctrine, 2nd ed. [1966], 137–38).

3 Nephi 16:10

- And thus commandeth the Father that I should say unto you: At that day when (not if) the Gentiles shall sin against my gospel, and shall reject the fulness of my gospel, and shall be lifted up in the pride of their hearts above all nations, and above all the people of the whole earth, and shall be filled with all manner of lyings, and of deceits, and of mischiefs, and all manner of hypocrisy, and murders, and priestcrafts, and whoredoms, and of secret abominations; and if they shall do all those things, and shall reject the fulness of my gospel, behold, saith the Father, I will bring the fulness of my gospel from among them.

Micha 3

- 6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them.
  7 Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

About the church and its leaders:

Good video on scriptures and if the Prophets may lead others astray: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TjyAkNjtaVI

"Jeremiah 23; D&C 64:39 The Lord reveals to Jeremiah that in the last days, those who would call themselves the Lord's prophets would be leading his people astray. Not little pockets of his people - all of his people. This idea is highlighted in D&C 64:39. It's important to note that throughout Jeremiah 23, the Lord says "my prophets" and "the shepherds/pastors of my people." This means it is/will be those who were supposed to be the Lord's prophets but weren't actually.

For those who think this could mean outsiders coming in and trying to pretend to be the Lord's prophets - that interpretation does not match the context given by Jeremiah. - Isaiah 1:23-24; 3:12-15; 9:14-16; 28:7-8,14-16; 29:9-10; 56:9-12; 1 Ne. 21:1

Isaiah sees the religious leaders of the Lord's people leading them astray in the last days and acting in evil ways. Cited verses above are the most direct references but there are additional indirect references. Their wickedness is largely what necessitates the coming of the Servant to destroy them and free God's people. Note that the same context that is laid out in Jeremiah 23 applies throughout Isaiah's accusations against the religious leaders. He's pointing specifically at those who are in the positions of leadership over the Lord's people. - JST Matthew 21:53-56 Jesus reveals the future destiny of the Latter Day Saints in a nutshell. Saying that his vineyard will be overseen by miserable, wicked husbandmen and that he will destroy them and the church membership as a whole and give the leadership of his people to other husbandmen who are righteous.

Note that this further illustrates, and more expressly so, what Jeremiah and Isaiah were pointing at. - D&C 84:19-27, 57-58 The Lord reveals to the saints in 1832 a type for what will happen to them if they remain under condemnation for not entering into the terrestrial order of the gospel (aka the fullness of the gospel) by offering up a broken heart and contrite spirit which is the New Covenant spoken of (v.57). The result would be a curse by way of a demotion to the telestial order of the gospel (aka the preparatory gospel) and loss of Christ's name and higher priesthood. - 3 Ne. 27:7-12; Mosiah 27:13 The Lord declares that his church must have his name and be built upon his gospel. Then he states to the end times and insinuates that the church will be run by the devil and by men instead of by him, and that they "have joy in their works for a season," but that "by and by the end cometh" and that they would be hewn down.

The Lord declares that there is one way for his church to be overthrown - from iniquity within. - D&C 101:43-62 "The Parable of the Redemption of Zion" The Lord reveals in more detail just how the miserable wicked men would overtake his vineyard as described in JST Matt. 21, reinforcing the notion that his people would fall into apostasy shortly after the restoration, and that he would a portion of those same servants back a second time to reclaim his people/vineyard and avenge him of his enemies.

Those who would listen and be called out are referred to as "the strength of mine house." The parable ends with the servant asking the Lord when all these things will be accomplished - the Lord says "when I will." This refers to how the servant, who the Lord would name shortly, did not understand when all of this would happen, and that the Lord deemed it wise to not tell him. These events would be fulfilled when the servants all came back a second time. - D&C 103:1-22;

He names Joseph Smith as the servant who is called to gather those servants together and be the man raised up as Moses to lead his latter day people out of bondage. - Jacob 5:49-end A different look at the same prophecy from the "Parable of the Redemption of Zion" just mentioned. The Lord sends his servant to attempt to restore his people to the truth (vv.50-59). He points out that he's leaving the bad branches for now."

Isaiah 3:

9The expression of their faces testifies against them, And they [i]display their sin like Sodom; They do not even conceal it. Woe to [j]them! For they have done evil to themselves.

10Say to the righteous that it will go well for them, For they will eat the fruit of their actions.

11Woe to the wicked! It will go badly for him, For [k]what he deserves will be done to him.

12My people! Their oppressors treat them violently, And women rule over them. My people! Those who guide you lead you astray And confuse the direction of your paths. Mormon 4:5 But, behold, the judgments of God will overtake the wicked; and it is by the wicked that the wicked are punished; for it is the wicked that stir up the hearts of the children of men unto bloodshed.
