Calendar and Information:
Everything for Everyone Reading Group

Summary: The Everything for Everyone Reading Group will read at their own pace and meet up for a round-up discussion covering many currents in left thought.

Goal: The goal of this reading group is to learn about collective alternatives to capitalism and the potential for change within the overlapping crises of our present.

Members: Anyone can join.

Readings: We'll be reading Everything for Everyone: An Oral History of the New York Commune, 2052-2072 by M. E. O'Brien and Eman Abdelhadi. You can purchase a copy here:

- Common Notions (Publisher, digital format also available)
- Massive Bookshop
- Bookshop.org

Structure: The group will have two coordinators (Jeffrey Hearn & Joshua Lawson) that take responsibility for administrative elements of the group. Jeff has read the book previously and will take the lead on discussion questions. If you would like to co-facilitate with us please let us know. (Email Jeff at cowbellemoo@gmail.com or Joshua at joshua.lawson@bison.howard.edu)

Timeline and Location:
Read independently in preparation for an online discussion in January. We will meet once online on Tuesday, January 17, 2023 from 7:30-9pm EST. We'll also plan an in-person meetup for DC-local participants in January.
