Scroll down for images, If you can't save the images take a screenshot. This can work in any niche just change out the copy and images etc.

To make money from this you actually have to stay committed and publish content. You can't just post one image and expect to make money, build up the account. It will all be worth it if you put in the work to do it. This is designed to be started as a side hustle or side income. We know this works because there are plenty of accounts doing it, you just have to stay consistent.

Cheers
