The Shavuos Stereotypes™
There's always that guy
* * *

1. The “anyone have a PDF of Tikkun?”
2. The guy that starts by the Seuda.
3. The guy that Leins the Tikkun with Trop.
4. The guy that says the whole Tikkun in one sitting, doesn’t stand up even once.
5. The guy that can't: the table hopper.
6. The Bulshove table, yeah.
7. The guy that doesn't talk when in middle of a parsha.
8. The guy that doesn't talk until the very end.
9. The Nosher. Eating all night long.
10. The guy that's done in like an hour (at least he says so).
11. The guy using a fancy Heichal Menachem Tikkun.
12. The guy using a paper/printed one.
13. The guy that falls asleep on his Tikkun.
14. The guy that uses a Tikkun with small pages so that we he inevitably loses the place he only goes back to the top of a small page.
15.
16. 15. The guy that uses one with big pages cuz when he loses the place he's Meikil and just jumps ahead.
17.
18. 16. The guys that ask if we say Krias Shmah She'al Hamitah.
17. The guy that when it comes Alos he flips out stops Bulshoving and rushes to finish up.
18.
19. 18. The guys that go to Mikvah before Alos.
20.
21. 19. The guys that go after.
22.
23. 20. The guys that argue about what our Minhag is.
24.
25. 21. The guys that stay up till Tchilas Zman Krias Shmah.
