YOUNG BLACK FEMALE ENTREPRENEURS

YBFE Partnership Opportunities

Young Black Female Entrepreneurs, Inc. (YBFE) collaborates with schools, organizations, businesses, and community leaders to expand access to entrepreneurship, leadership, and economic empowerment opportunities for youth and families.

Program Partnerships

Organizations host a YBFE program for their participants. YBFE provides curriculum, facilitators, and implementation support, while partners assist with space, recruitment, and program coordination.

Strategic & Community Partnerships

Long-term collaborations focused on shared goals, community impact, and aligned missions. These partnerships often involve referrals, joint initiatives, and ongoing engagement.

Corporate Partnerships

Businesses support YBFE through sponsorship, funding, employee engagement, or in-kind resources that strengthen programs and expand impact.

Referral Partnerships

Schools, organizations, or individuals connect youth and families to YBFE programs and opportunities by sharing information and referring participants.

Event Collaborations

Partners work with YBFE to co-host or support events such as workshops, showcases, and entrepreneurship summits, sharing promotion, planning, or resources.

Media & Promotional Partnerships

Media outlets and content creators amplify YBFE's mission and programs through storytelling, interviews, and promotional features.

Next Steps

Organizations interested in working with YBFE are encouraged to submit the Partnership & Program Request Form below. All requests are reviewed to ensure alignment, capacity, and impact.
