Document of copying/tracing by @ReonGalletita on Twitter | Lion Stegmann on Facebook

This document's purpose is only to inform and clarify confusions I got through messages from followers/clients towards this artist. Please do not harass the mentioned artist. I don't support any kind of harassment.

My only accounts/handles on Twitter/X are: nihellie | silentioustea | anteliarie

I have no other accounts/handles aside from the mentioned, nor given permission to any artist to heavily imitate my art style and profit from it. I do not permit it. The artist in question knows this deeply, even before they started copying, and has been doing this for 4 years straight with the excuse of just "studying" it, which continues to do even after telling them directly and privately to change it (because that was more than just a study), which I did twice. On October 2023 and February 2024

Permission was never asked. They excuse themselves as being only "inspired" but never admit what they're doing. They never apologized about this, nor changed anything.

Like I said on some occasions, because I'm very vocal with this:

inspiration, referencing ≠ copying

Please, do not comment regarding the following:

"You can't copyright an art style"
"Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery that mediocrity can pay to greatness"
Justification of their actions just because they are a "small" artist.
"[Insert big artist] they never complained about copying"

I won't discuss anything I haven't mentioned.

This is not a demand to stop creating.
Apology isn't necessary, just change.

COPYING/TRACING COMPARISONS

They used to mostly just reference my art in a normal scale (2021), then scaled to heavy reference the next three years (2022-23-24), but recently has been doing it more intensely and even tracing is suspected (2025). Here are some current proofs, there's more but the document would be very long so these are the most similar:

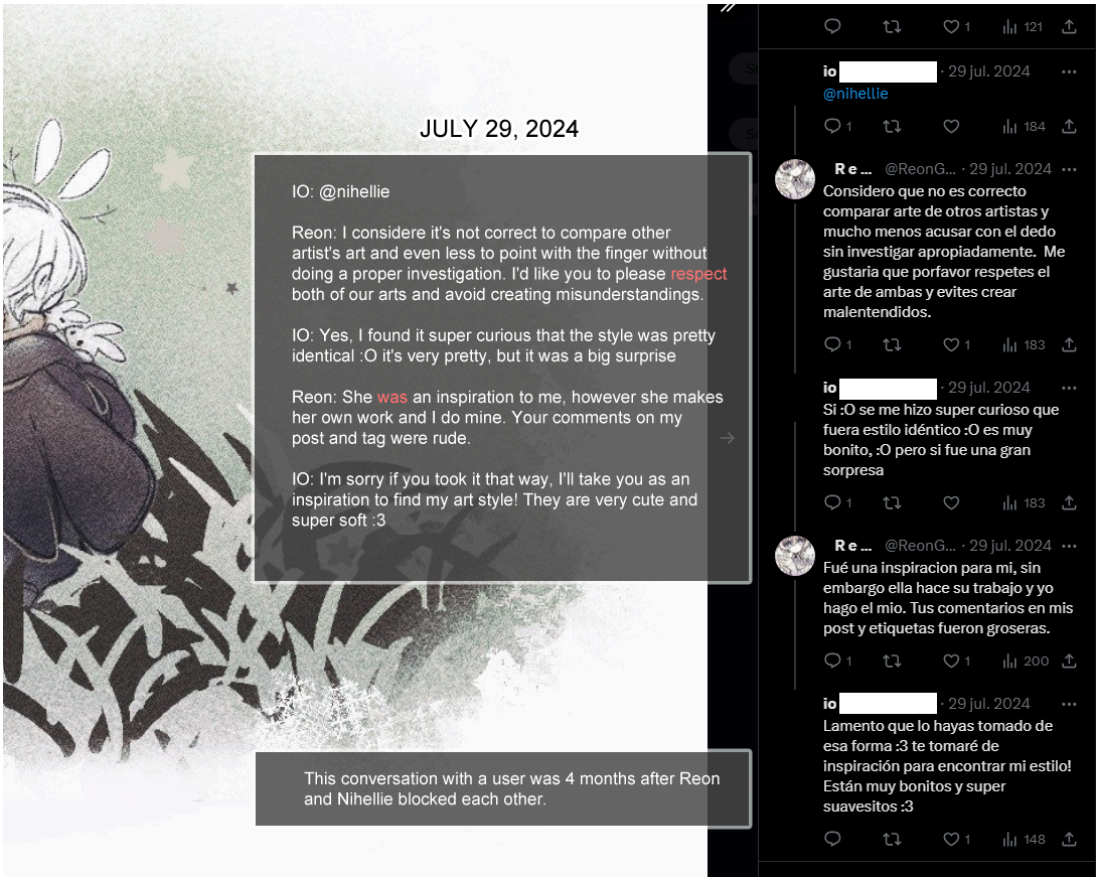
REACTION TO COMPARISON

If you ask them about the similarities, they will gaslight saying that they WERE inspired by me, in past tense. Their drawings tell the opposite to the date.

Nowadays, if they talk about their inspirations, I'm not on their list unless someone asks.
(SS from Reon's X/Twitter and Threads)

Fact: I'm blocked by them on every platform we have in common since March 2024. I only blocked them on X, IG and Gmail.



X: Your style is identical to Rie's on Twitter, I saw them and couldn't help but think you are the same person O^O

REON: We're not the same person, she's an artist and I'm another.

X: Even the details of the highlights are the same, it seems a bit strange to see but oh well...

REON: She inspired me a lot years ago, hence the similarity. But yes, we are different artists. I invite you to enjoy the art, whether it's hers, mine, or both of ours.

CONFUSED FOLLOWERS/CLIENTS

In these months I got some DMs of people asking about this artist: "is it your alt account?", "are they your friend?", "I thought it was you!". It's tiring getting these messages. Personally I don't see and I don't want to see this person anymore, I'd like to draw peacefully without knowing about them or if they still see my works even having me blocked.
