The Erinyes Project Pitch

Author: James “Dragon Master” Courneya

Main Genres: Seinen – Battle – Character Study

Sub Genres: Psychological – Unique Power – Horror – Strategy & Consequences.

Series Length Count: Short-to-Mid [Potential for more].

Synopsis:

A new Warden has just taken over the Erinyes prison. A women's prison, but with unique circumstances. The women here all have uniquely manifested powers – that have a chaotic effect on their minds.

The Warden has been tasked with heading the Erinyes Project, in which they will be trying to take command of these prisoners to resolve certain classified missions.

Making decisions on how to best utilize and control them.

Having things work out even in training seems close to impossible, let alone taking on actual field work. However, they do not have the luxury of this project not succeeding.

Structure:

An ensemble cast each with unique character traits. The Warden must strategically make decisions on how best to handle each prisoner and mission. Choices on which prisoners to take, based on their powers, personality, ability to work on a team, controllability, and more. With those choices really impacting each mission.

A Tactical Management Thriller with consequences.
