The Aftermath

NOTE: The other column has certain lines that happen at the same time and use a similar rhythm to the main lyrics.

Hope is a word unheard of
in a world full of war.
In those times of despair,
there is no time to spare.

There's no time.

We need a new "lord."
So we need your voice
to give them hope
now.

We need a new "lord…"
to give us liberty.
We need your help
now.

Death is seen everywhere
people would go.
Clean up the messes
caused by the corrupt.

A new world is so far.
Blood reeks everywhere we go.

We were so close.

We have long to be free
from the chains of tyranny.
Feelings of uncertainty
from when they got us banned…

It's not fair.

From our very land.
Their power's out of hand.
This needs and end
now.

How could they do such things?
"Ode Of The Oppressed."
Put it all behind
now.

They painted our skies red.
Why?
Our world is tainted.
Bodies fall wherever they go.

We need a change

"As far as I can see,
Is this how we came to be?
We transcend what we can do
to defy unfair rules."

“People around the world,
let us give you our words.
Our kind is not the one
to go against our will.”

Desolate worlds
need a system reboot.
Clean up the messes
caused by the corrupt.

A new world might be close.
Let us band up to rebuild…
together.

We will not give up easily.
We will get victory.
Our people will be free.
Hope still lingers within…

It burns like a flame.
Smoke rises to the sky.
We need a change
now.

Reach ‘to the sky
for we have learnt how to fly.
New beginnings have been blooming like the flowers at night.

The world is no longer
the same as it was before.
Some heroes are stories to be told.

We have already fulfilled our will.
We hope to keep shining some more.

A new world might be close.

Your soul.

It burns everywhere.
Smoke rises to the sky.
We need a change
now.

We have won now.

We are one soul.

We can roam free.

We will shine more.
