The Uncanniest Avengers.

The Avengers are back at it again!
This will be a Open/Selective group. That means we will have certain stories closed off for specific stories! We do this to ensure we don't have stories flop. We will have open story lines so the public can easily take part and join us in this beautiful hobby we do.

We will be taking beloved titles and adding our own twists, spins and ending to them.
Do not fear though! We have got an army of original stories for our group.

- Age of Ultron.
- House of M.
- Marvel Zombie stories.
- Marvel Fairy Tales.
- Civil War.
- Avengers Vs X-men.
- Secret Invasion.
- Secret Wars.

We have got up to eleven exclusive members currently. We are always open to involve more writers! We are looking for serious people who have no intention on flopping, or just not responding. If real life gets crazy talk to us we totally get it and will work on something.

We also accept original characters as long as they are not intensely overpowered.
The rules are too simply have fun, be respectful. We don't tolerate hate.
