    - Newsletter

- Principal's Report
    - Fergus O'Byrne and Jim Payne were at the school on October 23rd. They did a session for the whole, as well as smaller sessions with the elementary and junior high students.
    - Pajamarama was held on October 24th and we brought in $300 for the Janeway
    - On October 28th, we had another session with the 50+ club. Students from grades 5-9 were treated to a pancake breakfast and an interactive session on games from the past. The students were very engaged.

    - The Remembrance Day Assembly was held on November 7th and we had a good crowd of the public. The students did a great job and showed a lot of respect.
    - Kids Eat Smart - We had a visit from Evelyn Francis on November 12th from Kids Eat Smart. We discussed some different options and will do cereal on Fridays.
    - School lunch program (Government funded) is still on the table, however, we do not have a space to prepare food. We are hoping this will happen for us sooner rather than later.
    - Participation Nation - Applied for and received a grant for two programs this winter; Hosted 9 former CA students (now at JCA) and they were trained to run the program. Those students will receive career volunteer hours for their involvement.
    - Christmas Fair - our Leadership group took part by hosting a "Bake Walk"; Incredible community support as always - Brought in $1200, Very touched by Ian Brackstones gesture to donate all money from the Santa photos at the fair to the sensory room. He brought in a donation of $340.
    - Photo Retakes - happened this afternoon
    - Extra SA - found out yesterday that we were given 5 extra student assistant hours - job will be advertised on Friday, hopefully.

- Upcoming Events
    - We have had only one phone line at the school since August 2024. It was supposed to be fixed this fall, but has been pushed back to Dec. 12th, 2025.
    - Book Fair (Family Event) - November 27th, 6-8pm. In seeing the prices, we do not see this being something we continue next year.
    - Report Card Prep/PL - November 28th - No Classes for Students
    - Reports will go home on December 5th
    - Family Teacher Conferences (Interviews) will be on December 8th from 1-4, and again from 5-6.
    - Christmas Concert will take place on Thursday, December 11th @ 12:30
    - Last Day before Christmas break - December 19th; dismissal at 12:35ish
    - Return to School on January 5th, 2026
