[1] A sexenio is the formal recognition of a six-year period of research activity assessed by Spain's National Commission for the Evaluation of Research Activity (CNEAI). This requirement does not apply to researchers working outside Spain.

[2] A conflict of interest is deemed to exist if any of the following circumstances apply:
- Having served as the doctoral candidate's thesis supervisor or co-supervisor.
- Being related to the doctoral candidate within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity (by blood or marriage).
- Having co-authored previous research publications with the doctoral candidate.
