🔎 What This System Is:

A step-by-step shortcut to ethically "spy" on high-performing affiliate emails, extract their angles, and remix them into winning promos that match your voice, audience, and product.

This is the method top affiliates use to dominate leaderboards and now it's yours.

✅ Step 1: Swipe the Angles That Work

Instead of guessing what might work... start with what already does.

Here are 5 proven emails from successful affiliates (used in real WarriorPlus launches).

For each one, we'll break down:

- The Subject Line
- The Email Body
- Why It Works
- A Fill-in-the-Blanks Version with a product name and affiliate link so you can edit + go

✉️ Email Example #1: Curiosity Pattern Interrupt

Subject: "He did what with ChatGPT?!"

Body:

> This dude literally uploaded a PDF to ChatGPT and got a full product idea + sales page + traffic strategy in minutes.
> Not sure how long this loophole will work, but it's scary good...
> [Your affiliate link here]

Why This Works:

- Curiosity-based subject
- Shock factor with "what"
- Taps into AI trend
- Frictionless CTA

Fill-in-the-Blanks Version:

> Subject: "He did what with [Tool Name]?!"
> This dude literally used [Tool Name] to [desirable shortcut or result].
> You can see the full walkthrough here: [Your affiliate link for [Product Name] goes here]

✉️ Email Example #2: Weird But Effective

Subject: "This method is kinda dumb... but it works"

Body:

> Honestly, this is not the smartest idea I've ever seen...
> But when I tested it? I made my first 6 sales on WarriorPlus in a single weekend.
> Here's how it works: [Your affiliate link here]

Why This Works:

- Disarms resistance with honesty
- Plays on anti-guru sentiment
- Fast result = trust boost

Fill-in-the-Blanks Version:

> Subject: "This method is kinda dumb... but it works"
> I didn’t expect much, but [method] actually helped me [result] within [timeframe].
> Worth checking: [Affiliate link to [Product Name]]

✉️ Email Example #3: Bonus = Main Attraction

Subject: "My bonus > the product"

Body:

> Max & James have a solid system.

But I took it one step further with a custom AI bonus that actually does the hardest part.

So yeah, my bonus might be more valuable than the main product.

Grab it before I pull it: [Your affiliate link here]

Why This Works:

- Bold, competitive tone
- Elevates perceived value
- Creates urgency

Fill-in-the-Blanks Version:

Subject: "My bonus > the product"

I added something to [Product Name] that makes it even better: [Describe your bonus benefit].

Here's where to grab it: [Your affiliate link]

✅ Step 2: Spot the Winners

You don't need to reinvent the wheel. Just spot the winners and spin them your way.

✉️ 1. Join Vendors Lists

- Discover products launching every day on WarriorPlus.com Many vendors start with $1 or low-ticket offers designed to quickly grow their buyers list. These entry-level offers aren't "cheap" in value — they're crafted as low-friction products so customers can easily step in, experience the vendor's style, and then decide if they want to explore higher-level solutions in the future.

So, to see this in action with one of my own products, I didn't just charge $1–$5. Instead, I created a simple landing page where you only need to enter your name and email. Once you do, you'll instantly receive a powerful report that shows you how to launch a simple digital product business — plus you'll start getting my emails so you can study my angles, my style, and how I write.

That's the real purpose of this guide: to show you how vendors (including myself) build relationships and sell through value-packed follow-ups. And the same applies to every vendor you've ever bought from — you're already getting their emails. By studying those angles, and plugging what you learn into this system, you can promote affiliate offers more effectively or even launch your own product that others will buy.

- Buy a cheap $1 product OR join their free newsletter
- You'll start getting their affiliate angles via email
- Save the emails that stand out — these are your "goldmine angles"

🔍 2. Use Inbox Tools

- In Gmail, filter your inbox using affiliate tracking IDs (like jvz7.com, warriorplus.com)
- Create folders for "Winner Emails"
- Screenshot high-performing angles and build a swipe file.

Use Inbox Tools (Step-by-Step Guide)

One of the fastest ways to study how top affiliates sell is to organize your inbox. Here's how you can do it:

Step 1. Open Gmail (or your email app). In the search bar, simply type "warriorplus.com." This will pull up all the emails you've received from WarriorPlus vendors — the same vendors you've already bought products from.

Step 2. Click the dropdown next to the search bar and choose "Create Filter." Tell Gmail to automatically move these emails into a folder whenever they arrive.

Step 3. Name your folder something like "Winner Emails." Now, every time a vendor promotes something, you'll have a private "swipe file" sitting right in your inbox.

Step 4. Go through these folders regularly. Don't just read the offers — look at the subject lines, hooks, bonuses, and urgency angles they use. This is how you build your own playbook without guessing.

✅ Step 3: Spin Your Own Angle with ChatGPT

Don’t copy. Remix.

Use ChatGPT to turn swiped angles into fresh versions that match your style and list.

- Example Input:

  Email 1: “He did what with ChatGPT?!” (Curiosity + AI)

  Email 2: “This is kinda dumb… but works” (Disarming honesty)

  Email 3: “My bonus > the product” (Bold confidence)

- ChatGPT Prompt:

Based on these angles:

1. "He did what with ChatGPT?!"
2. "This is kinda dumb… but it works"
3. "My bonus > the product"

Can you give me 3 new affiliate subject lines with email hooks I could use for promoting [Product Name]?
Make them bold, curiosity-driven, and easy to personalize.

✅ Example Output:

- "This 'lazy trick' got real results fast"
- "Is this even legal?"

- "Nobody else is giving this away (I am)"
