This document is meant to bring light to inappropriate behaviors from multiple members/contributors of the Baldi modding community; members of sub-communities: BBRMS (Baldi's Basics: The random maps series); its derivatives BBCCS (Baldi's Basics Character Calamity Series), BBKCM (Baldi's Basics Kickstarter Content Madness), based on all surviving evidence.

A lot was lost, be it intentionally, as people mentioned in the document were known to scrub such evidence, or unintentionally. If you have some additional proof or testimonies, reach out and we'll be sure to verify it and add it.

This document does not seek to incite harassment on individuals mentioned. Please do not go hunting down anyone mentioned in the document.

Baldi's Basics is an indie horror game created by mystman12. Originally created in 2018 for a Meta Game Jam, it parodies 90s edutainment games aimed at kids.

Ever since 2018, modifications of this game have started to be made. One of these was Baldi's Basics Character Calamity Series (BBCCS), created by xTPSx, now known as SPSick. It has been criticised for being poorly made, with poor character mechanics, bugs, and bad art design. But what if I told you there are much more concerning things regarding the group responsible for the mod?

Some of his contributions were added into a mod called Baldi's Basics Kickstarter Content Madness (BBKCM), a mod built on the Kickstarter version of Baldi's Basics Plus, which was supposed to be a continuation of past mod BBCCS.

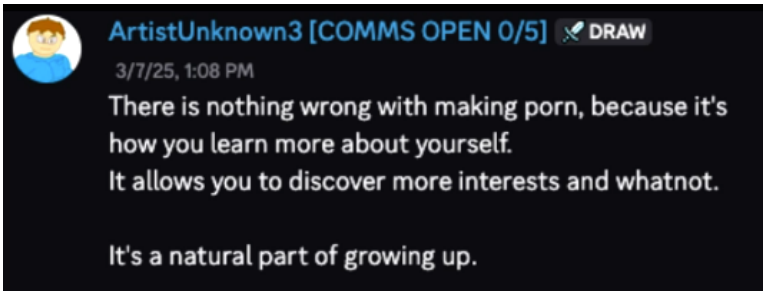
Artist Unknown 3 (& Friends)

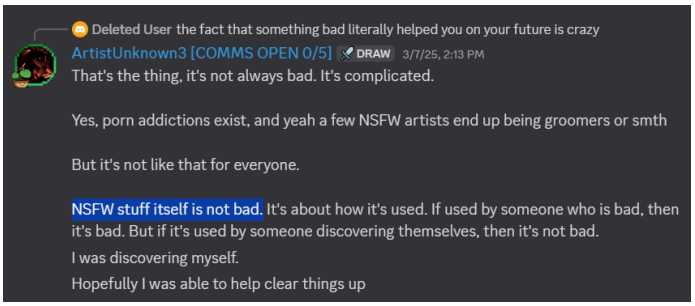
Referred to as Aaron. Not to be confused with AaronCS7.

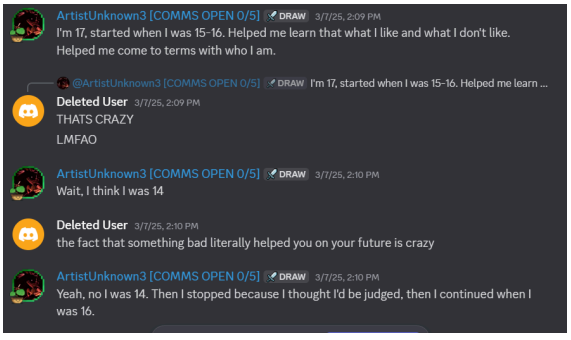
Aaron, a.k.a. Aaron the Kid, or Artist Unknown 3, was an artist and contributor in the BBKCM subcommunity[1]. He is active on platforms like GameJolt under @Artist_Unknown_3, where he shares drawings, and content tied to Baldi mods or fan projects.

Advocating For Early Porn Consumption

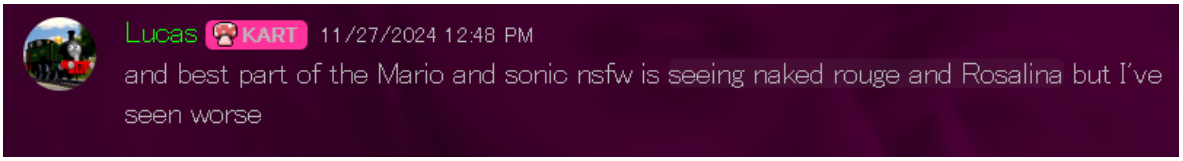
In a Discord conversation from March 7, 2025, Aaron stated the following (amongst several other concerning statements) to a barely-13 year old named LucasGabriel:







This kind of framing came up in a chat that is mostly composed of minors, which raises real issues when you see what he was advocating for.
This is something he admitted to, and various people have seen the messages for themselves in the chat.



Aaron's other friend Lucas (not to be confused with LucasGabriel) was also discussing porn on the server. During this time, Aaron was around 16-17 and Lucas was 13. Aaron did not participate in this, but he let it slide.

Questionable Characters

Aaron, and friends, have added some questionable things into BBKCM, which should not be in it due to Baldi's Basics literally being a parody of edutainment games for kids. One of these questionable things was Alex Axolotl, an OC of Aaron's which he has sexualized multiple times, and by appearance alone should not be in a game aimed at minors.

Alex Axolotl

- Aaron The Kid Official says the asides from Aaron the Kid, Alex is his most redesigned character. Most of the redesigns were to make Alex more thicc... (Fuckin' laugh).

Also Known As	Horny Axolotl

- Girlfriend of TEMG Surname*...

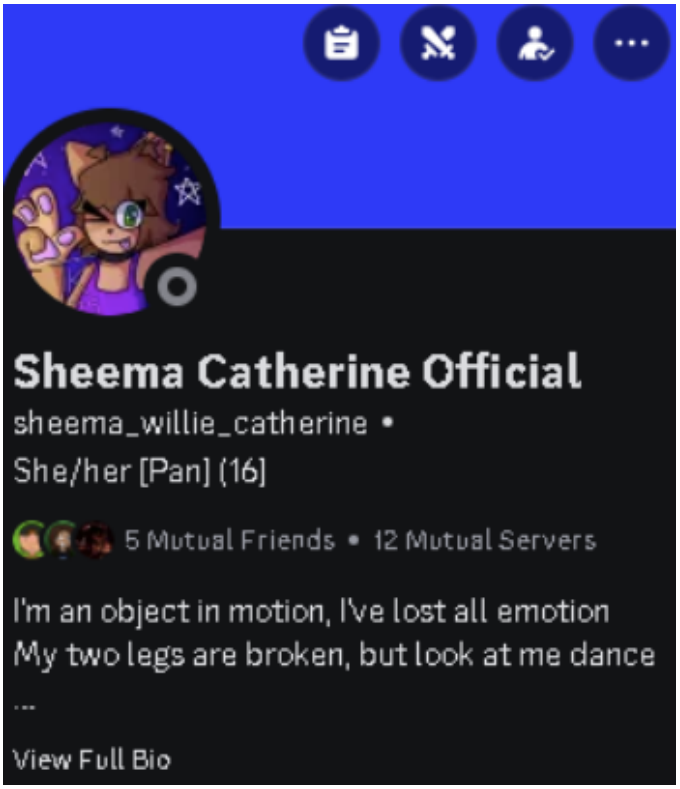
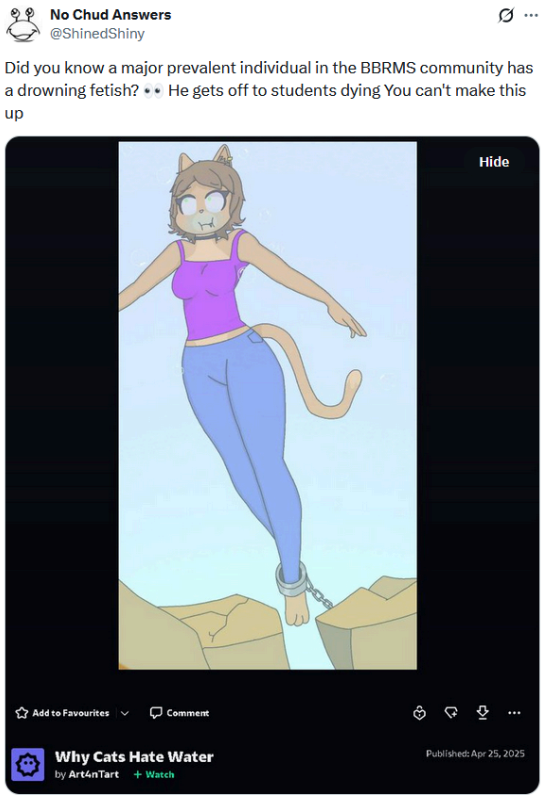
Sheema Catherine

Aaron has a furry character named Sheema who was given the age of 16 initially. During that, he made the drowning fetish art of this character. He says now it's 19, but the age he had was still 16 when he made this, so that doesn't really help. And he was also 16 or 17 too while drawing this.





He said that the age was supposed to be his actual age and he didn't update it since he didn't use the account (lie), but the account showed activity after 2024, where he would have been 17, and he never updated it so it's obvious that the age in the Sheema account was the age for the OC. He updated it to 19 DURING a 2026 argument about it.

Friends

Diggie2007

Referred to as Diggie, Diggaz, or Brian.

Diggie2007 was also a member of the Baldi's Basics Character Calamity Series Mod, and was exposed around December 2021. He is currently 18 as of writing this. Diggie's controversy was sending explicit real life photos of his genitalia to someone who was 11 when he was 14. The only surviving references to this are the linked wiki article, a few of Diggie's GameJolt posts, and Aaron defending Diggie when this was brought up in a server's argument.

Despite most proof being wiped, what remains still serves as concrete evidence, a self-admission.

Controversies

- His characters were removed near the end of the entire BBCCS series because he was a porn addict at that time, he sent flirting-type messages to Lewycuh. Diggie sent a picture of his dick to him via discord dms, Lewycuh was 11 years old at the time meanwhile Diggie was probably around the age of 14 years old.

While he has apologized to the victim, due to Aaron & Co's current actions, it's safe to say there is a high chance that he hasn't changed. Also, an apology changes nothing since he actually did it. And he defends what he did.
https://archive.ph/DrSqA

Metaldoomguy is Lewcyuh. Aaron has even said so.

(DMs with an unknown User)

Metaldoomguy was 11, how can an 11 year old manipulate a 14 year old?
And there's barely any proof of that.
Even if he did, Diggie did the crime first. Diggie initiated this.

TEMG Surname

TEMG Surname is an 18 year old who is on the server. He defends Aaron and contributes to the sexualness through art. He also did a thing to be exposed before. He created porn of his character Luci who appeared in BBCCS. He even forced someone to fall in love with the character.

- TEMG stated in one of his DeviantArt posts that Luci is the "sin" of Lust.

https://bbccs.fandom.com/wiki/Luci
There's not much proof left, but there's still some.

You can see some of his strange art here:

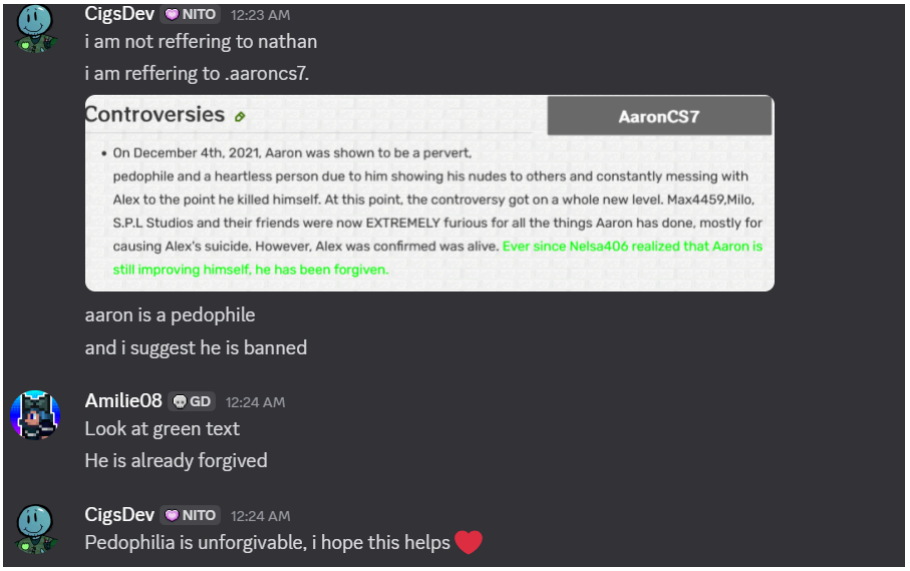
Nathan Foonugs

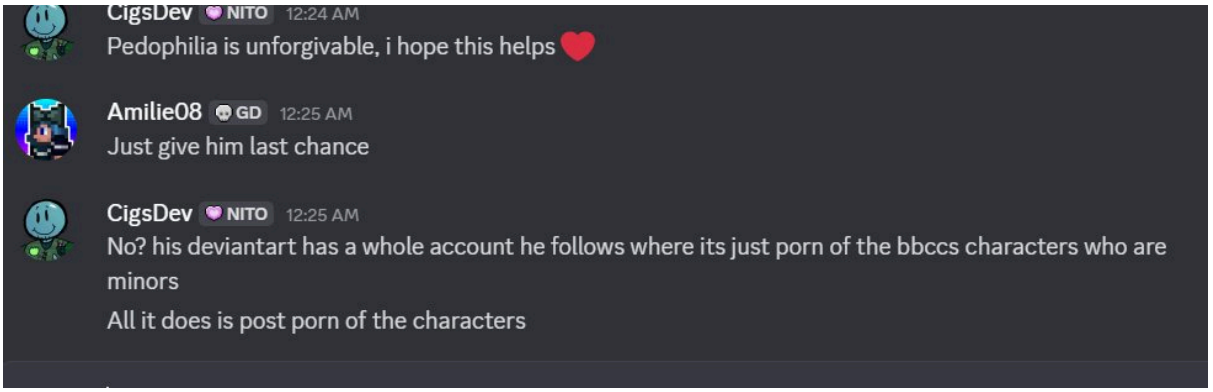
Also known as GWAYthan, RecycleWoodMerry, brimstonerobe.

Nathan Foonugs was one of the contributors for both BBRMS, and later BBCCS. He was one of the first people to be exposed around January 9th, 2022 for grooming multiple victims[1], one of which was left traumatized by the experience.[2] It is worth noting that Nathan has gone so far as to openly admit to one of the victims that he would rape them if he had a chance.[3][4]

AaronCS7

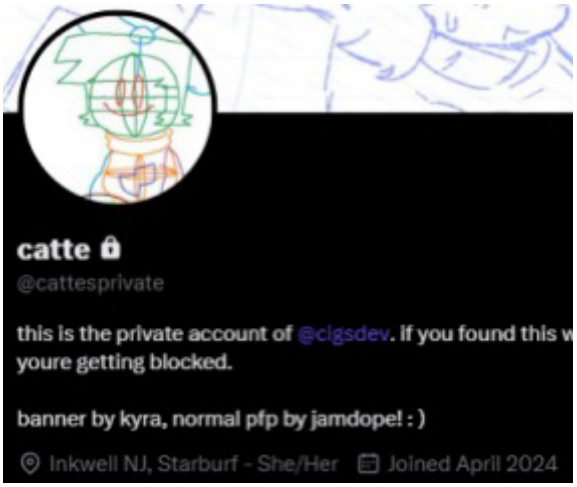
AaronCS7 is a Baldi Fan who apparently sent a dick pic when he was 16 to a 12 year old. Despite not being a part of BBCCS or BBKCM, he was still friends with xTPSx. Sadly just like Diggie, most proof is lost, only one image remains from a now deleted wiki page. What we have is these 2 things of him being defended by someone:

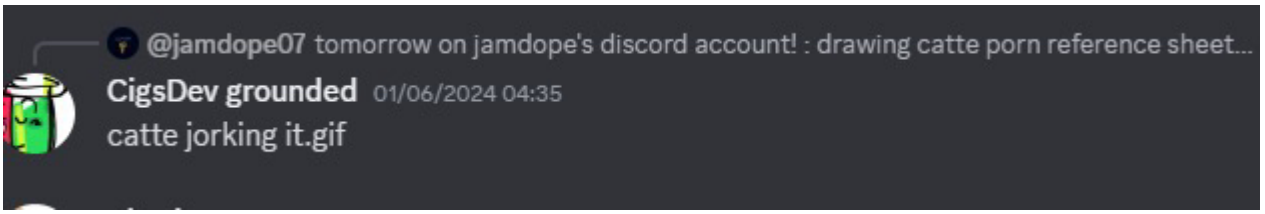




https://x.com/CigsDev/status/1947151181412708595

It’s also important to note that CigsDev (20) was exposed for grooming Jamdope (15) into drawing porn for their OC, Catte; which they actively encouraged, and shared around on their private twitter account.





Punkred is a contributor, he is most well known by his Baldi impression, and the Vase meme that came out of it.

DO NOT SUPPORT PUNKRED
Punkred was a popular person in the baldi community for his video about baldi's vase, and recently I have been groomed by him,
Punkred is 17 and I was 14 at the time, and he asked me to be in a relationship and I said yes because I was dumb at the time but anyway, Punk would then go on to constantly make s"xual jokes towards me knowing FULL WELL that I was 14 and didn't like to hear about stuff like that,
the images here show him:
-making s"xual jokes aimed at me,
-explaining s"xual topics to me,
-overall being really creepy about everything,
-and him manipulating me, making me feel like the bad one whenever I did something that wasn't him.
punk has also made s"xual jokes about my height in vc's same with making what were essentially r"pe jokes saying he'd come over to my house and f"ck me.
and he has once stated that he saw nsfw and imagined me in him in place of it which is basically him saying he was imagining having s"x with a 14 year old.
so TLDR; do not support punkred by ANY MEANS, he is a groomer and he is trying to return to his youtube channel and act like he did nothing wrong. @everyone

Conclusion

The Baldi's Basics modding community is mostly made up of kids and young teens. Because so many of the people in these spaces are still kids, it’s honestly not okay for anyone with a proven history of serious misconduct, such as the people covered in this document, to still be hanging around or contributing. These are spaces full of children. These individuals simply shouldn’t be there due to the heinous things they’ve done.

Even BBCCS itself has a whole “Contributors With Controversies” section and long lists of characters that got completely removed or replaced due to such. That alone shows this isn’t just a one-off drama. It’s a repeating pattern that keeps happening across different mods and over multiple years.

Some of these people have come out and said they’ve changed, learned from their mistakes, scaring those who speak out into silence, or even victim-blaming, but when you look at how often the same kinds of issues keep coming up, or the severity of many of them, it’s hard to believe the change is real or effective. Behaviors like that have pretty high repeat rates, and the pattern here makes it feel like there’s still a real risk to the kids who are just trying to enjoy making stuff and connecting with others in the Baldi fandom.

This is why it’s important to talk about this instead of treating it like “old drama” that should just be buried. Protecting young creators and fans has to matter more than protecting reputations. If you’re in the Baldi fandom, please consider sharing this to help spread awareness about the situation so more people know.
