House Rules

(Yes, we know this part is boring at best and annoying at worst! But we have to put it in! Thanks for respecting and enjoying the property!)

-No smoking of any kind is permitted in the house at any time or for any reason (marijuana, cigarettes, e-cigarettes, etc). You are welcome to smoke on the deck, porch, or outside, but kindly place butts in an outside garbage. If you smoke outside, make sure the windows near to the house near you are closed. Any smoking in the house forfeits your entire damage deposit.

-Sadly, no pets are allowed at any time at the vacation rental. We have renters with allergies and thus have to make a no pet rule (special exceptions apply, but please contact Carrie for information).

-Please never go on the neighbors property. We have wonderful neighbors who enjoy their privacy. Several also have unsafe areas like shooting ranges and ponds and absolutely do not want trespassers and will call the police if . We have a small fence around the back of our property so that you do not accidentally trespass.

-Please don’t park in front of the garbage bin on Fridays as the garbage truck comes on Fridays.

-Please keep food and drink (other than water) out of all carpeted areas.

-Please do not go on the roof or take out any screens.

-Please keep doors closed when you aren't coming in and out. We have lots of bugs and critters in the woods and do not want any uninvited guests.

-Please never leave the wood burning stove door open and have someone experienced with fires in charge of lighting/maintaining it.

Thank you!

House Manual and Instructions

Outdoor fires: You are welcome to use the outdoor firepit. You may use any wood you find laying dead in the forest (be careful for poison ivy). We also buy and stack wood on the west side of the yard or by the fire pit twice a year. Because we only restock it a few times a year, we don’t guarantee that it will be there, but normally at least some wood is available.

Indoor fires: Please be careful using the woodburner- it gets hot! The wood for the burner does have to be dried, split wood. The stacked wood on the side of the porch and stacked wood on the west side of the house can be used for the woodburner. You may need to leave the woodburner door open a crack when you are lighting it until it gets hot, and then close it. The gold handle beneath the wood burner can be pulled out to let more air in through the flu so it’s easier to start. Please never leave the wood burner open.

Television: Unfortunately we are unable to get cable in our area without sacrificing wifi speed. We recommend hooking up your phone or laptop to the HDMI cord on the T.V. if there is something specific you want to watch. A DVD player is attached. The two remotes are in the white cabinet next to the t.v. downstairs or on the T.V.

Extra tables and chairs: We have extra tables and chairs in the closet on the main floor living area, in the basement closet in the living area, in the basement storage room (next to the laundry room), and in the garage.

Thermostat: Each floor has its own thermostat, so you can set them accordingly. Just push the up or down button and hit “set.”

Grocery Stores:

- Tysen’s Grocery in DeMotte has more options but is more expensive
- Save-a-lot Grocery store: Cheaper but limited options
- Perkin’s Good Earth Farm: Just down the road (literally a walk or bike ride) is a family owned, organic, DELICIOUS vegetable farm. Their farm stand is open very limited and not all year, so check them out online or on facebook before going.
- Yesteryears Meats a local meat and deli shop which also provide catering (219.987.6644 http://yesteryearsmeats.com)
