

GRAMMAR – Using ‘will’ and ‘will not’ ANSWER KEY

1. It will rain on Monday.

It won't rain on Monday.

2. It will hail tomorrow.

It won't hail tomorrow.

3. It will stop snowing tonight.

It won't stop snowing tonight.

4. The weather will be hot on Christmas.

The weather won't be hot on Christmas.

5. There will be black ice on the sidewalk tomorrow.

There won't be black ice on the sidewalk tomorrow.

6. It will be cloudy and snowy this weekend.

It won't be cloudy and snowy this weekend.

7. There will be a nor'easter coming our way in two weeks.

There won't be a nor'easter coming our way in two weeks.

8. It will be hot and sunny this afternoon.

It won't be hot and sunny this afternoon.

9. The forecast says there will be a blizzard.

The forecast says there won't be a blizzard.

10. I believe it will rain tomorrow because it is sunny outside.

I believe it won't rain tomorrow because it is sunny outside.

11. The weather channel predicts there will be strong winds tonight.

The weather channel predicts there won't be strong winds tonight.

12. There will be freezing rain tomorrow night, so bring an umbrella!

There won't be freezing rain tomorrow night, so don't bring an umbrella!

13. There will be flurries next week.

There won't be flurries next week.

14. It will be below freezing on Friday night.

It won't be below freezing on Friday night.

15. It will be chilly on Wednesday and there will be heavy rain.

It won't be chilly on Wednesday and there will not be heavy rain.