Get Involved

CETL supports opportunities for OU faculty to engage in the scholarship of teaching and learning. For additional support, set up a consultation by contacting CETL faculty director Sarah Hosch (hosch@oakland.edu).

CETL Resources

- Scholarship of Teaching and Learning Guide. This OU-specific guide takes faculty through the process of collecting data about their teaching and turning it into a publication.
- OU Research and Publications lists OU faculty who have published scholarship on their teaching practices. On this page we invite faculty to share their teaching scholarship titles.

Resources Beyond CETL

Writing about Learning and Teaching: This open access book from Elon University provides practical guidance for writing about teaching for a variety of occasions and media, from awards, articles, and case studies to opinion pieces and social media.

University of British Columbia's Recommended Papers page lists SoTL work of importance from a variety of disciplines.
