

Students, TO USE THIS DOCUMENT, you MUST make a copy for yourself:

- Google users must be logged into their Google email account, go to File>Make a Copy, and save it to YOUR Drive or download it as a Microsoft Word document.

Copyright Learning Activity

Student Names:

Student responsible for downloading and sharing this document:

Date:

Check with your teacher about identifying a partner or small group to complete this activity. Decide which one of you will download and share your Copyright Learning Activity with the others. Put your names on this document.

Use the Resource List provided below to work together to write responses to the five topics provided. When done, submit the document to your teacher.

RESOURCE LIST for Your Research

- Creativity, Copyright, and Fair Use YouTube video (4:40 min.)
- How Copyright Works
 - Part 1 (2:48 min.)
 - Part 2 (3:20 min.)
 - Part 3 (3:17 min.)
 - Part 4 (4:24 min.)
 - Part 5 (3:30 min)
- Is Content Created by AI-generated Tools Copyrightable (University of South Florida University Library Article)
- Use: Michigan eLibrary or Kiddle and search Copyright

#1. Explain why a person should copyright their own creative work and if they can sell copies of it.	Your response:
Include the URL(s) from where you found the information for your response.

#2. What should you do if you want to use copyrighted work for a class assignment?	Your response:
Include the URL(s) from where you found the information for your response.

#3. What types of things can be copyrighted? What cannot be copyrighted?	Your response:
For your response, include the URL(s) from where you found the information.

#4. Do you have to cite sources generated by Artificial Intelligence? If so, how?	Your response:
Include the URL(s) from where you found the information for your response.

#5. Explain how you can copyright your creative work.	Your response:
Include the URL(s) from where you found the information for your response.

Now go back to the All About It page and take the Copyright Quiz.