If your child is the… "Kamikaze" aka The Adventurous Teen

Reykjavik, Iceland is a paradise for adventurous teens seeking an adrenaline rush amidst stunning natural landscapes. More specifically, taking a tour to the Langjökull ice cave is an experience not to be missed. The journey begins with an hour's scenic drive to Langjökull glacier, located in the rugged Icelandic wilderness. Inside the Langjökull ice cave, you'll encounter a mesmerizing world of ice formations that have been shaped by nature over centuries. The natural blue ice walls add a touch of ethereal beauty. As you walk through the caverns, you'll discover a labyrinth of hidden passages, ice tunnels, and chambers, immersing yourself in the icy world beneath the surface. The thrill of the Langjökull ice cave tour is heightened by the unpredictable weather conditions and the raw power of nature. This adds an element of excitement which your adventurous teen will surely love.

If your child is the… 'Outdoorsy' Teen

San Jose, Costa Rica is the perfect destination to indulge in the beauty of the great outdoors. And for a truly unique experience, head to the Arenal Volcano National Park. This active volcano offers not only stunning views but also the opportunity to soak in natural hot springs surrounded by lush rainforest. The park also features a network of suspended hanging bridges that allow visitors to walk through the forest canopy. These bridges offer an up-close view of the lush vegetation, birdlife, and occasional glimpses of the volcano. Arenal Volcano is particularly captivating at night when the lava flows illuminate the sky. There are special night tours that allow visitors to witness the volcano's activity after sunset, as well as to spot nocturnal creatures that cannot be found during the day.

If your child is the… 'Shop till You Drop' Teen

New York City, one of the fashion capitals of the world, is a paradise for all shopaholic teens. With its endless array of boutiques, department stores, and street markets, the city offers a shopping experience like no other. For shopping options that appeal more to teens, as well as an array of things to see and do, head to SoHo. This trendy neighborhood is filled with stylish boutiques and well-known brands for teens like Zara and Uniqlo. Alternatively, head down to East Village Manhattan, where your teen can snag a great deal at thrift shops such as Buffalo Exchange and No Relation Vintage, all while soaking in the vibrant atmosphere of the neighborhood. And when it's time for a break, there are plenty of unique cafes, such as All The King's Horses and The Lazy Llama Coffee bar – a Llama themed cafe, where you can refuel and recharge.

If your child is the… 'History junkie' Teen

Athens, Greece is a treasure trove of ancient wonders. From iconic landmarks like Syntagma Square to archaeological sites like Ancient Agora , the city is steeped in history and offers a fascinating glimpse into the birthplace of Western civilization. No visit to Athens is complete without a visit to the Acropolis. This ancient citadel, perched on a rocky hilltop, is home to some of the most important architectural masterpieces of ancient Greece, including the Parthenon, the Erechtheion, and the Temple of Athena Nike. To dive deeper into Greek mythology, a visit to the Temple of Olympian Zeus is a must. This colossal temple, dedicated to the king of the gods, Zeus, is an impressive sight to behold. Marvel at the massive Corinthian columns and imagine the grandeur of the temple in its heyday. Nearby, your teen can explore the ruins of the Ancient Agora, the heart of ancient Athens, where Socrates and Plato once walked and debated.

If your child is the… 'Culture lovin'' Teen

Merida, the vibrant capital of Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula, is a cultural hotspot that will captivate the senses of any culture-loving teenager. Known for its rich Mayan heritage, colonial architecture, and lively arts scene, Merida offers a unique blend of ancient traditions and modern cultural expressions. To get a taste of Merida's vibrant arts scene, head to the Paseo de Montejo. This elegant boulevard is lined with beautiful mansions, many of which have been transformed into art galleries, museums, and cultural centers. Your teen can immerse themselves in the world of Mexican art, from traditional folk art to contemporary masterpieces. And if you happen to visit on a Sunday, don't miss the weekly street fair, where local artisans showcase their crafts and live music fills the air.

There is no shortage of incredible destinations to explore with your teenager. Whether they are adventurous, outdoorsy, shopaholics, history junkies, or culture loving, these cities offer a plethora of activities and experiences that cater to different traveler personalities. So pack your bags, unleash the adventure, and embark on a journey that will create memories to last a lifetime. Contact Single Parents Who Travel to help.
