

SL:Quick Question About Your Brand

Hey Kevin, Hope all is well

I am sending you this email because I came across your website and was intrigued by your brand,

I like how your brand inspires men to use natural supplements to have better performance and help accomplish their health goals.

But I did a little research on your target market I feel like your brand can target a bigger audience.

I also came across your Instagram and I know it also has the potential to drive in even more traffic with these simple Instagram captions I created for you.

Do you want me to send it over as a gift?

Best Regards,

(MY NAME)
