

In class, we have been discussing the past. I would like you to take a look at your past.

Your assignment is to choose one of your family members (grandparents, aunt and uncles, etc) to research about. If possible, you could talk to them about the topics we will look at. If not, you

Could get some information from your parents to begin your research.

You will be looking for (but not limited to):

When were they born?

What Presidents (or other leaders if from other country) did they live through?

What was life like when they were born?

What was life like when they were your age?

What did they do as an adult?

What are the places they have lived or visited?

How did they overcome the challenges in their life?

Did they have hobbies and if so, what were they?

Did they have siblings?

Did they have regular family gatherings?

What jobs/ careers have they held?

What technology was available to them as they grew up? (electricity, plumbing, TV, cameras, computers, etc.)

How has the world changed during life?

How has the world stayed the same during their life?

Anything else you are curious about. PLEASE DO MORE

This week we will work on collecting this information, research more about the time period and organizing everything that has been collected. DUE FEB 21

Later, we will begin to turn this into a biography that can be shared with your family. Please Do not rush through this project. Take your time and learn about your family's history along the way.
