MINA EUSEBIO

E: minaeusebio99@gmail.com

PROFILE

Mina Eusebio (she/they) is an artist and activist with a focus on amplifying underrepresented voices in Ireland. Mina is the first trans and Asian President of TU Dublin Students' Union responsible for representing more than 28,000 students across the university's five campuses. Additionally, they are the founder and Creative Director of Swords Youth Choir, a youth-focused community organisation aimed at educating and introducing ensemble singing to the youth of Fingal and surrounding areas.

EDUCATION

2020–2025 | TU Dublin Conservatoire – Bachelor of Music (Musicology and Voice)

2019–2020 | University College Dublin – Bachelor of Arts (Spanish and Music)

2013–2018 | Fingal Community College – Junior and Leaving Cert

2012–2013 | Our Lady of Fatima University (Quezon City) - High School

2005–2012 | Young Generation Academy (Caloocan City) - Primary School

WORK EXPERIENCE

2026 – Present | President – TU Dublin Students' Union (CLG)

- Responsible for being the chief spokesperson of more than 28,000 students in the university for local, regional, national and transnational affairs.
- Manages 7 full time Vice Presidents and 11 part-time officers to deliver the core mandates and policies which aligns with the union's mission and vision as set out by the student council.
- Represents the union on an executive level within the university including Governing Body, Academic Affairs, and Climate Council.
- Promotes the democratic values of the union by empowering the student voice through the election and training of more than 900 student representatives.
- Oversees governance and operational functions of the union as one of the directors of the company which includes the annual workplan, €1.2m budget, and corporate policy reviews.

2025 – 2026 | VP for City Campus – TU Dublin Students' Union (CLG)

- Responsible for promoting the values and mission of the Students' Union to the 19,000 students in the city campus through orientations, training, and class representative elections.
- Worked in collaboration with the President and Vice Presidents (Welfare, Events and Engagements, and Communications) to contribute and support more than10 campaigns and events including Orientations, Freshers Week, Black History Month, Climate Week and starting the inaugural Veganuary in the university.
- Lobbied for equitable infrastructural investment across the three campuses securing funding for a multifaith room, increased amenities for food, and refurbishment of indoor and outdoor common spaces.
- Engaged with key stakeholders within the University and lobbied relevant external figures to increase student representation within all levels of decision-making.

2022 – Present | Artistic Director and Conductor – Swords Youth Choir (SYC)

- Developed and produced the SYC's organisational ethos, catering to the needs of young people (8-16) in Fingal and surrounding area with the primary aim of providing high-quality and accessible musical education in conjunction with community building.
- Responsible for all aspects of membership recruitment, digital promotion, and administration which include Child Safeguarding, Code of Conduct and the annual review of the budget.
- Oversees all applications to local and national funding opportunities to maintain and expand SYC's existing and future outreach missions.
- Successfully delivered multiple projects through Grants and Community Schemes including 'SYC Summer Song Camp' (2024-2026) supporting more than 100 young people.
- Manages 5 seasonal staff and volunteers for regular rehearsals and outreach programmes.
- Curates an engaging musical repertoire based on the youth participation framework in addition to regular composition commissions from local composers.

2021 – 2025 | Freelance Music Educator – Lawless School of Music, Sing Ireland, Irish Institute of Music and Song

- Taught one-on-one vocal, piano, and early years musical tuition for students aged 3 – 50 +
- Led multiple Summer Camps and delivered an early years musical programme for children aged 4-7.
- Worked as youth support for Irish Youth Training Choir for their residency projects ensuring successful safeguarding and enjoyment of youth participants aged 14-17.

SKILLS

- Public and administration
- Project and budget management
- Curation
- Community Engagement
- Fundraising
- Public relations
- MS Suite and Google Workspace

AWARDS

- Fingal Artists' Support Scheme Recipient – 2025
- Fingal Arts Act Grant Recipient – 2025
- National Film School Mentorship Scheme Recipient – 2025
- Creative Ireland Fingal Communities Grant Recipient – 2023, 2024

VOLUNTEER WORK

- Queer Asian Pride Ireland - Founding Member