right so that happened very quickly. To summarize Everything someone was talking about the fact that they had a copy of old naramo and i got a bit curious and asked them for the file. I never downloaded it, I never distributed it. Shadow then pinged me in the faction oversight discord with something in the style of "You have exactly 5 minutes to explain this to me" to which i did. I then came back to my computer aaaaand they were banning me in all naramo related servers. They never asked for ownership of any documents, servers, or anything like that. they just banned me. I'm still not even certain if thats the ban reason its just the only thing I could tie it to as they never gave a reason to me. I can't appeal as i'm banned in the nams server too.

Anyways, sorry to be leaving you guys like this. Prior to November last year I didn't really know what it felt like to be a part of a Community. I really appreciate every single one of you. I'm not a big fan of doing a big announcement through a bot like this but what choice do I have when they just banned me from Everything. One thing FO still can't do is communicate. It's all we've ever asked for. Lets hope for some nice Changes in naramo and hopefully some cool faction stuff.

Thank you guys so much for trusting me to run NMP for this long, sorry for not getting those app results out to you guys in time. It's probably gonna be paused for a little while..

Thank you thank you and thank you!

Also happy nmp anniversary yay

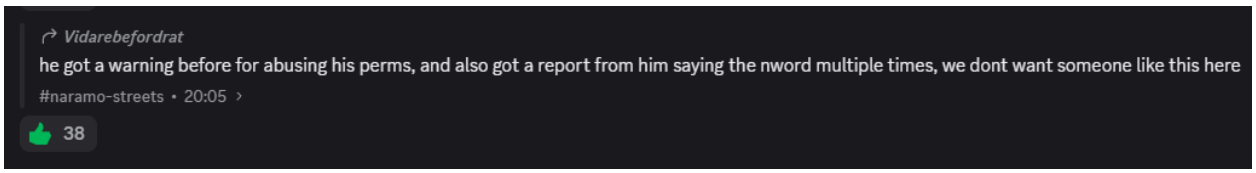
Timeline of today was

Got a “formal warning” from nams for tasing a guy twice and cuffing him into a wall.

One or two hours later got removed for the whole copy of naramo thing

Just briefly mentioning that i never downloaded any assets belonging to naramo either, didnt distribute it either nothing like that.

Also genuinely NO clue what this is about id love some proof or something i dont know if i misunderstood but ive never said the nword :p



I love how I got kicked and didn't get a chance to state my case or my side of the story

I 100% believe i should have been punished for what i did but making up stories about me being racist or wtv is just taking a shit on my reputation for the sake of it. They wanted me gone and that's something that was very noticeable for a very long time.

A few weeks ago blaley pinged all of faction command for NES, ANRO and NMP. He wanted to talk to us but never what it was he wanted to talk to us about. ANRO was called in, within the hour ANRO had their faction suspended and a few days after ANROCOM was slimed out. NES was called in and nothing happened. And when it was NMPs turn blaley straight up deleted the VC and never spoke of it again.

I was never given an opportunity to give genuine feedback like all other factions were. They had planned the ANROCOM purge and my removal way before. 8NEC leadership is dysfunctional and has always been dysfunctional and this just proves it further.

Shadow has refused to provide me with any evidence and straight up ghosted me, I can’t appeal, which btw is a service they offer to people with PSC bans.
