In honor of getting 2k, we decided to have our members write messages to either the studio, the leaders, the other members, and/or the viewers. Thank you so much to everyone who has written something! <3

I was a little bit skeptical at joining when I was first asked, because I didn't know what Bloom was going to actually be about. But I decided to give it a shot especially because I wanted to be more a part of the YT community & make MEPs. It's pretty nice to be in Bloom, the MEPs are cute and I like to edit that kind of stuff. The people are really nice and easy to talk too. Something else that I find kind of funny is that I think i'm the only male in the studio {My Harem hue hue}, I haven't met any other yet lol. (DONT QUOTE ME I COULD BE VERY WRONG) In any case shout out to Rebecca for inviting me in <3. I look forward to being apart of the growth of the studio and watching all of you cuties in there grow too :)

I'm fairly new to the studio, but I can already say that the leaders are very caring and actually give us a chance to choose what song we would like to do next. I really enjoy being in this studio and actually having the chance to participate in an mep that is for sure going to be finished. Thank you ! <3
