You are teaching a unit on race and housing and the class is discussing tactics used to keep Black people out of suburban neighborhoods. A student makes an offensive comment about Black folks not being able to afford to live in suburban neighborhoods to begin with. How do you respond?