

Documents, if applicable, that may be needed when you apply to verify income:

Items	Documentation
1. Income from wages, tips, dividends, interest, rental, business profits	1. IRS forms 1040, 1040A, 1040EZ, a signed copy of 1040TEL or official transcript of tax return; forms W-2, 1099, W9
2. No income	2. IRS form 4506 verification of non-filing
3. Pension, annuity or unemployment benefits disability benefit	3. Letter from the appropriate institution stating applicable year's total award (If not already reported on a tax return.)
4. Social Security, Supplemental Security Income or Veteran's Administration non-educational benefits	4. Letter from the agency stating applicable year's total award for each member of the household
5. Public Assistance	5. Letter from the agency stating applicable year's total award and names of recipients
6. Child Support, Maintenance	6. Signed affidavit, court order
7. Additional members in household	7. Birth certificates, marriage certificates, third party verification, along with proof of income or lack thereof for each member, tax return, school records, custody orders
8. Zero household contribution	8. Needs analysis output from the U.S. Education Department's approved needs analysis system
9. Unusual circumstances	9. Notarized letters, statements, etc., that corroborate claims