Harvest Global Education (HGE)

Harvest International Education (HIE) was founded in 2012 and is based in Beijing. Our Boston base was foundedin2018. HGE was founded in 2024 and is our second branch in the United States. These three companies under Harvest Education have been committed to promoting and strengthening cross-cultural communication and language education among young generations by focusing on diverse cultural and exchange programs.

I. International Exchange Program

Over the years, we've been providing quality international exchange programs for international students and partnered with a whole bunch of top private and public schools in the U.S., including Worcester Academy(Boston), Barnstable High School(Boston), National Cathedral School(DC), Black Pine Circle School(Berkeley), Emerson School (Detroit), Streamwood High School, and the like.

II. International & Domestic Youth Exchange Program

Meanwhile, we also focus on youth exchange programs for Chinese and international students in China. Duringour programs, both international and Chinese students will get together to practice language and share cultures whilevolunteering in local communities or embarking on diverse outdoor excursions.

III. Diverse Chinese Course

Undergraduate Students/ Company officers/ Embassy or Consulate officers Over the years, we have developed a new set of teaching methods and standards based on the Middlebury Model from North America at HGE and backed up by many highly experienced teachers; we have been offering quality Chinese training services for international students, companies as well as embassies and consulates. W

IV. Certified HSK/YCT Exam Center

HSK- Chinese Proficiency Test / BCT- Business Chinese Test/ YCT- Youth Chinese Test Meanwhile, our China base HIE have long been one of the certified exam centers for HSK, BCT and YCT appointedby Hanban and organized countless tests for international students and the like.

V. Overseas Teaching Assistant Program

On the other hand, by working with China famous universities, we've successfully helped lots of Chinese undergraduates get to the U.S for overseas teaching assistant program. Our participants could get into primary, secondary schools or universities in the U.S by observing or assisting in the Chinese classes. By far, the OverseasTeaching Assistant Program has become one of the highly-recommended programs. Furthermore, the programhas been expanded to Spain, Finland, and other countries over the years.

VI. Learn Yuwen (E-magazine)

Sun Baifeng, the founder and chief editor of Learn Yuwen, has been teaching Chinese for many years and has longbeen dedicated to promoting Chinese language and culture across North America. In 2014, HGE was honoredtobein charge of the magazine's edition for beginner and intermediate levels. The magazine has long enjoyed a well- established history and widespread reputation among students and teachers alike across North America.

HGE & HIE would be nothing without the help and support from our partners, educators and students alike over theyears. We still have a long way to go up ahead, but we're ready to move forward with determination and belief. Please feel free to get in touch with us for any questions or assistance. Thank you!
