But at the time, Dr. Littlefield said, many black families who sent their daughters off to work for white families were faced with straight-razors or tried to get them placed in homes without young men. The fear of rape was very real for blacks, while white men saw access to black women as a coming-of-age ritual, an unspoken custom of white men having early sexual experiences with black women. same time that if they even cast a glance toward a white woman, they could be swinging from the branches of the nearest magnolia tree.

20 year prison term	Paul Ingram	R	senior sheriff's deputy and chairman of the Thurston County Republican Party	WA	plead guilty to 6 cs raping his daughters, served 14 yrs first prison	https://www.nytim	1980	Ingram's daughters said their father had invited friends – fellow deputies – to participate in the abuse. Ingram initially told investigators he had no memory of abusing his daughters. But he later gave confessions during hours of interrogation by sheriff's investigators, a Tacoma psychologist and his pastor that were far more detailed than the abuse his daughters initially reported. The confessions included accusations against two of his junior-playing buddies and descriptions of group sex, Satanism, bestiality and rape, court transcripts show. His defenders say Ingram confessed not because he committed the crimes, but because he was manipulated into believing he had. The unlikely alliance of Ingram supporters includes men who have been accused of abuse by their own daughters, fundamentalist Christians who believe Ingram was led astray by his charismatic church, some nationally known academicians and a few civil libertarians. Former Stockton Mayor Anthony Silva was formally sentenced to one felony conflict-of-interest charge that closed a three-year financial-malfeasance case on Monday morning in San Joaquin County Superior Court. Judge Charlotte Crutcht sentenced Silva to 60 days in county jail, however, attorney N. Allen Sawyer said he is allowed to serve that time in an alternative work program. Additionally, 49-year-old Silva was ordered to pay $19,763 in restitution, be under three years of formal probation and was given a lifetime ban on owning guns or ammunition. San Joaquin County District Attorney's Office said. The former mayor pleaded no contest to a single conflict-of-interest charge in exchange for dismissal of the other felony counts he was facing. Before that, Silva was busted in a youth camp strip poker scandal. Now, like then, his lawyer says looks can be deceiving. "They did send a SWAT team of about 50 to 60 agents, including federal agents. And at the end of the day, he got 60 hours of community service for giving a beer to someone who was over the age of 18," Sawyer said. "That's what that case ended up being and that was two years in making. Go to all that hassle? exactly been exactly as billed." https://fox40.com/news/local-news/ex-flee-6-new-charges-against-former-stockton-mayor-anthony-silva
