*Attendance in the summer classes requires enrollment in full-time CU credits (12 credits), uses one semester of scholarship eligibility and counts toward the normal semester. Academic performance will be reviewed at the end of the summer semester by determining if the student is eligible for participation removal for the following fall semester. If the student drops and enrolls full-time (12+ credits) and/or moves the credit requirement for removal, the student will be considered for any remaining semesters at CU.

** Requires living on campus and full semester on-campus housing charges.
