Annotated Illustration

100 XP / 50 Minutes

Your task: Draw an illustration of a historical figure, item or event. Annotate this with text labels and descriptions of the key points in the picture.

Instructions:

1. Draw a full page picture, in color, of your figure, item or event.
2. Neatly write a title identifying the person, place and year.
3. Write a minimum of 6 annotations at least 2 sentences in length each to describe various parts of your drawing. Number these 1-6 on your paper.

Example

Knight
England, 1100 - 1500

1. There were multiple styles of helmets for knights but most were metal. Though they protected against sword cuts they left you with quite a headache if you were hit.

2. The main armor of a knight was chain mail. These linked metal rings offered solid protection and were light enough to allow easy movement.

3. Knight's shields were metal and offered great protection. They often were painted with crosses to represent Christ.

4. A knight's outer coat often showed the colors of his lord. This helped to identify the knights in battle.

5. Their swords were called broadswords. They were heavy, straight blades best used for stabbing.

5. Knights wore armor from head to toe. On their feet they wore greaves which were basically metal shoes.
