Division DBQ

Essential Question: To what extent was life in the North different from life in the South before 1860?

Documents
1 – History Close-up: New York City, mid-1800s, 2 – The South's Cotton Economy p. 380-381, 3 - Transportation Routes, 1850 p. 362, 4 - History Close-up: Life of a Mill Girl p. 355, 5 – History Close-up: A Southern Plantation, p. 383

1. Create a chart like the one below to show information that you already know

	North	South
Economy
Geography
Society

2. Write an analysis of the first document which includes:
    a. How reliable is this source? Should it be trusted? Why?
    b. What you think are the 3 most important ideas, details or facts in the document?
    c. What is one idea, detail or fact that you think other groups might not notice
    d. Write a brief explanation of what side of the Essential Question it supports.

3. Repeat step 2 for the remaining documents.

4. Based on the documents and information you already know write your group's answer the essential question in an ARE paragraph. Cite at least three pieces of evidence from your document analysis in your response.

Assertion: (Directly answer the essential question.)
Reason: (Why is your answer correct?)
Evidence 1 (with citation): (Prove your reason with evidence from the documents)
Evidence 2 (with citation): (Prove your reason with evidence from the documents)
Evidence 3 (with citation): (Prove your reason with evidence from the documents)