

Political Beliefs

For each line circle the ONE side of the chart you believe most.

If you believe...

- The military should be kept strong and ready to fight at all times,
- Businessmen and factories are the best way to provide jobs for our nation,
- Wealthy, educated people should run the government since they are more informed,
- The Constitution is “elastic” meaning it can be used and interpreted in different ways,
- We should continue to fight in Afghanistan until that country is safe,
- The federal government should be strong to ensure the power of the whole country,
- High taxes should be placed on foreign products so more people buy American-made products,
- States are required to follow federal laws, even if they disagree with them,
- The federal government has some powers not specifically listed in the Constitution,
- The greatest danger to the country is a weak army and lack of unity,

then you are most likely a _____.

If you believe...

- The military should be very small and people should be called on to volunteer to fight when necessary,
- Farms and agriculture are the best way to provide jobs for our nation,
- Common people should run the government since they are honest,
- The Constitution should be strictly followed based on exactly what it says,
- We should leave Afghanistan immediately, even if terrorists remain there,
- States governments should be strong to keep the national government from being too powerful,
- People should be free to buy products from any country so they can get the lowest prices,
- States have the right to ignore federal laws they believe are unconstitutional,
- The federal government has only those powers listed specifically in the Constitution,
- The greatest danger to the country is an over-powered government,

then you are most likely a _____.
