

The Cat Concerto Reanimated Info

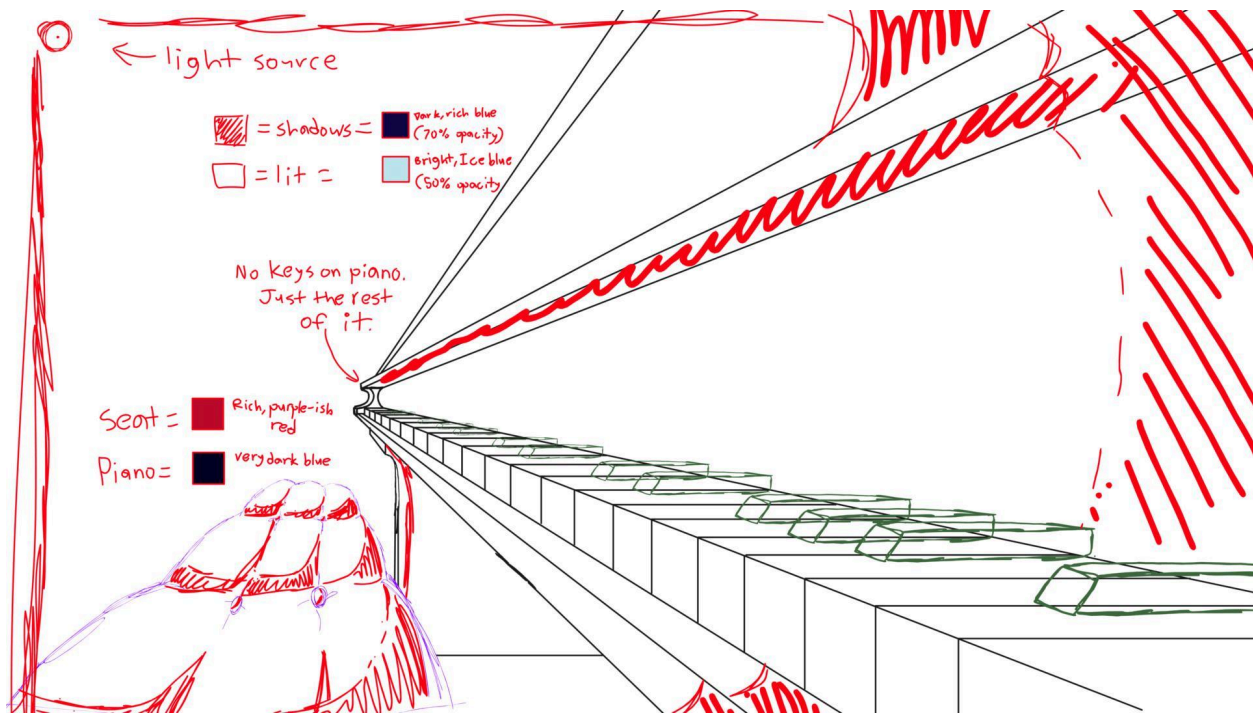

Planned Release: 2024

Hosted and Organized by @3GoldBalls

Welcome to the info of a reanimated collab that might change reanimation FOREVER! With the second reanimated collab organized by @3GoldBalls (Big House Blues Reanimated), this time, he and his reanimators now embrace a reanimation on “The Cat Concerto.” Based on the original 1947 cartoon in the popular MGM Cartoon, Tom and Jerry. In the original short, Tom plays Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2 with Jerry making him screw up. The characters were created by the legendary William Hanna and Joseph Barbera with the great amount of help from producer Fred Quimby of MGM. The short premiered on April 26, 1947 and received critical acclaim, and is considered one of the best Tom and Jerry cartoons. It won Tom and Jerry’s Fourth Oscar in 1948 and was listed by Jerry Beck at Number #42 of the 50 Greatest Cartoons in 1994. The short not only was another Oscar for Tom and Jerry, but it was considered by many to be a major influence on piano players like Lang

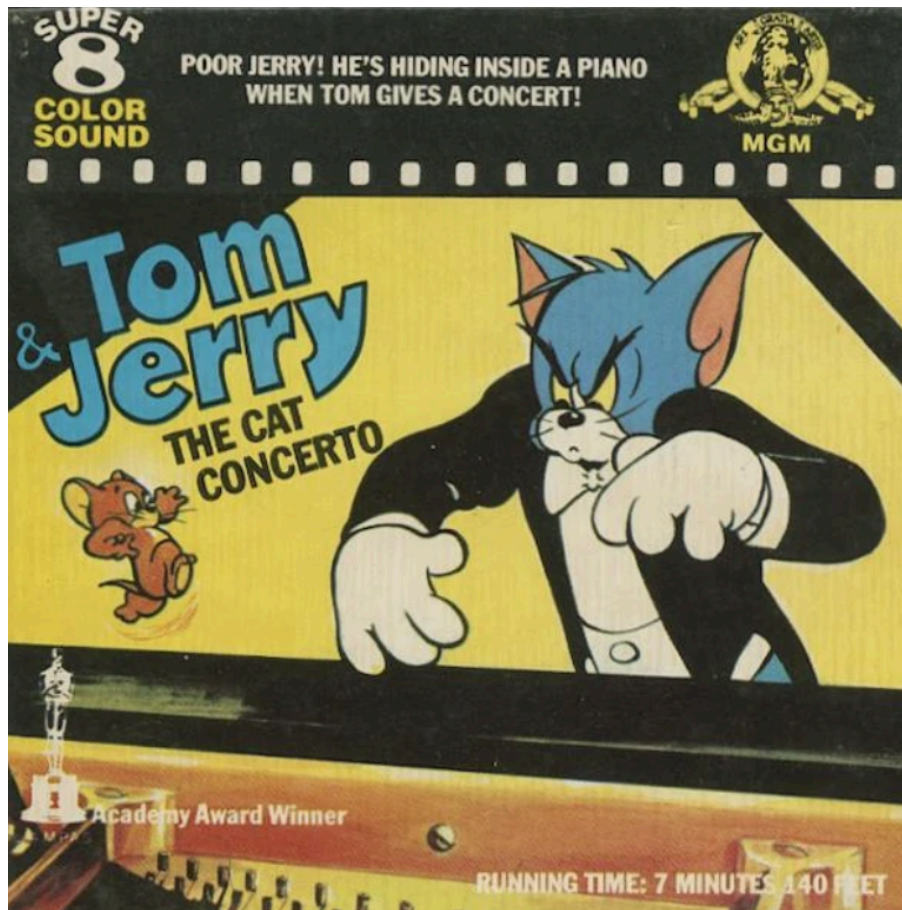

Lang, Arthur Rubinstein, Glenn Gould, and many more thanks to reruns and appearances on DVD, Blu-Ray, Cartoon Network, Boomerang, and HBO Max. We Need 60 Animators!!!
