

Audition Summary

Story Summary

Welcome back to Season two of Jaygee, Shay and friends! A fun, little web comic series about chill-guy called Jaygee running a studio-home that does media-based videos with his random friends like voice actor and writer, Shay, the sharp minded half-man/dragon editor, Andrew, and more special guests.

In this season (based of some events in real life), Jaygee has been thrown in Twitter jail with another creator for unknown reasons by gatekeeper, Karen. Now, with the help of a retired mercenary Agatha, it's time to break Jaygee out of jail!

Information

Since I owned this series, you can catch up with the webcomic on Webtoon.
