

Serve Mistress Sakura Properly

Welcome to my world.

If you wish to interact with me, follow these simple rules:

- Tribute first. Always. No tribute, no conversation.
- Polite, respectful, and obedient behavior is expected.
- No free attention. I am not here for your entertainment.
- Do not waste my time. Timewasters and beggars will be blocked.
- Gifts and tribute are the only acceptable forms of flattery.
- Screenshots of sent payments are required before you may message me.
- Remember your place. You serve me — not the other way around.
- I do not tolerate disrespect, demands, or cheap behavior.

If you understand and accept these terms, prove it by sending your tribute.

Your devotion begins with your wallet.
