

Online Safety Resources for Students, Parents and Carers

NSPCC Provides information and advice to support parents and carers with online safety, and has information for children and young people to protect them and help them recover from abuse. Keeping children safe online | NSPCC

Childnet Aims to empower children, young people, and those who support them in their online lives, its mission is to work with others to make the internet a great and safe place for children and young people. Has developed guidance for parents and carers to begin a conversation about online safety

Childline Provides advice to help young people to keep safe online and to know what to do when things go wrong. Staying safe online | Childline
Online and mobile safety | Childline

CEOP (Child Exploitation and Online Protection) The UK law enforcement agency that helps keep children and young people safe from online sexual abuse and grooming. Provides online safety education and advice for young people and parents Parents and carers | CEOP Education 11-18s | CEOP Education

Report Remove A tool for under 18s to report nude or sexual images or videos of themselves that have been shared online, to see if they can be removed from the internet. Provided by Childline and the Internet Watch Foundation childline.org.uk/report-remove

Report Harmful Content A national reporting centre designed to help everyone online. It gives advice and help with reporting harmful online content reportharmfulcontent.com