

Document Preview

If you want to see what your finding aid will look like in Archives West before you upload it, use Document Preview. Just choose the file from your computer, and click Preview Finding Aid.

As a note, all finding aids in Archives West use the same stylesheet. While this tool can be helpful for checking encoding and troubleshooting, our EAD Best Practices do not support encoding finding aids for a specific presentation format or visual style.