

The video started with the three boys sitting on the couch upstairs “So guys it’s Halloween!” The three are excited to go trick or treating, all of them in costume and everything. After a moment they run to the front door, Bowser is standing at the front door blocking their way “Hell no! You kids aren’t going trick or treating this year, there’s muggers out there and they’re gonna steal your shoes!” They all look down, Junior says “Dad, we aren’t wearing shoes.” Joseph says “I am.” Bowser says “See! Now you guys aren’t going trick or treating and that’s final!”. Mario Rosalina and Jeffy walk by Bowser, Mario says “Alright we’ll be back in a little bit.” Bowser says bye to Mario. Junior looks at his dad in disbelief “Dad, what the fuck! Why can Jeffy go!” Bowser replies with “Because he’s not my problem! I won’t let my precious baby’s shoes be taken!” Joseph looks up in excitement, Bowser says “Not you.” Joseph responds with “Aww...” Junior and his dad argue for a while before they storm off to the kitchen.

Chef Pee Pee is putting candy into a Halloween bucket “Another Halloween. Fuck my life.”

Junior starts to complain to chef pee pee, chef pee pee just laughs “Well it sucks to be you guys!” Bowser comes in and tells chef pee pee to entertain the kids and to make him a fruit salad because he needs to, in quote, watch his weight. Chef Pee Pee obviously not happy about it. Chef pee pee tells the kids he doesn’t give enough of a shit to watch them. The kids decide to play ball in the living room, chef pee pee tells Junior not to, but Junior doesn’t listen, Chef Pee Pee threatens Junior by saying “If you break something I’m going to stab you in the throat I swear to god!”

Junior Joseph and Cody are playing with a ball in the living room, “Alright guys are you ready to kick this ball in the house!” Junior says excitedly, “Oh yeah, dude!” Says Joseph, “But guys, we might break something.” Cody says. The other two silently stare at Cody, Junior breaking the silence by saying “Well. Your mom breaks the floor every time she walks!” Joseph being his usual self sides with Junior making fun of Cody. The two argue with Cody for a moment before Cody gives up, “Alright fine, let’s just kick the God damn ball.” The boys kick the ball around for a moment before Joseph says to Junior “I bet I can kick it harder than you dude!” “No way I can kick it harder!” Says Junior. Joseph kicks the ball to Junior, he tries his best but it was pretty soft, “That sucked Joseph.” Junior kicks the ball really hard, the ball flying over to the kitchen where Chef Pee Pee is.

Chef Pee Pee is in the kitchen, he is getting ready to cook a meal for Bowser with his new knife set, he’s excited to use them for the first time “I can’t wait to use these new knives!” He has an apple set on the stove, ready to chop it up. The apple falls over on the ground, Chef Pee Pee ducks down to pick it up. Until the ball hits the knife set, knocking them all over, Chef Pee Pee quickly looks up as the knives land onto Chef Pee Pee, slicing his face up really bad, he screams in agony before eventually passing out.

The three boys run into the kitchen after hearing Chef Pee Pee’s scream, Cody says to Junior “Jesus fucking Christ, Junior, you killed Chef Pee Pee!” Junior replies “Nonono, Joseph told me to kick it hard so it’s his fault!” Joseph replies “I don’t wanna be here for this, I’m outta here dude!” Before running off as usual. Cody tells Junior they need to call an ambulance, Junior obviously disagrees as he doesn't want to get in trouble. They both try to think of solutions until Junior gets an idea "Cody! What if we put his face back together?!" Cody thinks that idea is stupid "With what?!" Cody says. "I have stuff in my playroom that could work, come on help me drag chef pee pee." They both drag him to the playroom.

Junior shows up with a few containers of Play-Doh, some Lego bricks, and Mr. Potato head parts, "Alright Cody I got all the things we'll need." Cody looks at the supplies, "Junior this isn't going to work, these are toys!" Cody says out of frustration. Junior replies with "Don't knock till you try it!" Cody responds to Junior saying "What?! Junior, that's a term for food, not for putting your personal chef's face back together!" Junior says to Cody "Well at least I'm trying to put his face back together!" The two argue for a moment until Cody has had it and just leaves "I'm going home I'm not gonna stay here and be your murder accomplice!".

After Junior yells at Cody a bit more as he's walking away, he decides to just fix Chef Pee Pee's face by himself, a montage plays of Junior making his makeshift face. After the montage he finishes off by putting Chef Pee Pee's hat back on him "There, good as new." After a moment Junior decides to go to bed.

Junior is laying in his bed having trouble sleeping, both because of what had happened and because of the storm outside, Junior hears a creak. He sits up and stares at his door, now open. It's pitch black, he calls out "Hello? Chef Pee Pee?" Chef Pee Pee walks into the room before the video cuts straight to the SML Lesson: Don't Play Ball In The House!
